RUSHES TO HAVE TALK WITH TAFT

Colonel Roosevelt Hurries to New Haven in Fast Automobile.

MADE REQUEST TO MEET PRESIDENT

Oyster Bay Long Kept in Ignorance of Important Political Confab.

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 19.—President Taft and Col. Theodore Roosevelt will hold an important conference here this afternoon, presumably on the New York political situation.

The conference was arranged at the request of Mr. Roosevelt, who is now on his way here from Oyster Bay on a fast automobile.

Lloyd C. Griscom, president of the New York county republican committee, and Otto T. Bannard, the republican candidate for mayor of New York city last fall, also will take part in the conference. The meeting was arranged on Saturday last when Secretary Norton was visiting his family. Mr. Griscom and Mr. Bannard telephoned Secretary Norton and asked that an arrangement be made by which Col. Roosevelt might hold a conference with the president during his New Haven visit. This the president, it is said, was glad to do. He said that he expected to lunch as usual with President Arthur T. Hadley after the Yale conference.

President Hadley was advised of this and accordingly invited the president, Mr. Roosevelt, Mr. Griscom and Mr. Bannard and Secretary Norton to take luncheon together.

President Hadley's house having been dismantled during the summer holiday, the luncheon was arranged at the home of Henry C. White, a neighbor and friend of President Hadley.

Cause is a Mystery.

When asked this morning to state the subject of the conference Secretary Norton said he knew nothing about it except that an arrangement had been made for the meeting in response to a request from Mr. Griscom. The latter presumably was acting as the representative of Col. Roosevelt.

Just what development in the New York situation caused the request for the conference with the president at this time could only be conjectured here today. Since the Sherman episode and his statement of his every action in the matter, President Taft has been disposed to keep entirely out of the New York situation. He had been very reluctantly drawn into it in the first place, and after making his position clear during the entanglement which followed the turndown of Col. Roosevelt for temporary chairman of the state convention, felt he could leave the handling of the state's affairs to the leaders in the state, including Col. Roosevelt.

President Taft and Colonel Roosevelt with the other members of the party left the White home at 3:10 to go to the railroad station. Colonel Roosevelt did not plan to take the train with the president.

KEPT TRIP VERY QUIET.

Roosevelt Did Not Share Secret With Oyster Bay.

Oyster Bay, Sept. 19.—Nothing was known here of the departure of Col. Roosevelt until several hours after he had left. When word was teken to Sagamore Hill that a news dispatch from New Haven announced that he was momentarily expected there no one was found who would admit knowledge of the colonel's where-

ODD FELLOWS MEET IN SESSION AT ATLANTA

Grand Sire Reports Statistics on Membership and Finance.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 19.—The eighty-sixth annual meeting of the sovereign grand lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows was called to order in the hall of representatives at the state capitol this morning. It is expected 20,000 to 25,000 visitors will be here for the week's convention.

Following the organization of the convention reports were received and committees named, adjournment for the day being taken at noon.

W. U. Kuyendal, grand sire and commander-in-chief to the sovereign grand lodge, in his annual report said that at the end of December last the total membership, including subordinate lodge members and sisters only of the Rebekah lodges, was 1,952,421. The total revenue for 1909, Mr. Kuyendal reported, was in round numbers $16,827,000; total relief, $5,526,000, and total invested funds, $49,511,000. From 1829 to Dec. 31, 1909, the records show $130,908,000 expended for relief.

The grand sire reported against the proposed introduction of the order into Great Britain, saying that the Odd Fellows would have to change their name in order to be registered in that country.

BIG FAIR READY FOR THE CROWDS

Exhibits in Place and the Gates Will Open on Tuesday.

PLENTY OF FINE FEATURES ON TAP

Busy Scenes Precede the Launching of the Big Exhibition.

—FAIR FACTS—

Gates will open promptly at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Every day will be a big day.

Admission 25 cents.

Seats can be reserved in middle section of grand stand.

Racing will begin at 1:40 p. m. sharp.

Big parade of live stock.

Hippodrome chariot races between heats of races.

Tuesday Racing Card—2:13 pace, stake $1,000; $2:18 trot.

With just a little bit of help from the weather department Fort Wayne will see on a bigger scale this year a repetition of the fairs of the last few years that have made the city noted throughout the land, as the directors are prepared to throw open the gates tomorrow upon the greatest collection of live stock, horticultural and agricultural exhibits, racing stock and amusement features that has ever been collected inside the fences of the driving park.

There was the usual hustle and bustle at the grounds today as exhibitors and privilege men were warned early that they would all be expected to be in position for the opening and that none of the confusion that is generally present on opening days would be tolerated this year. For months the management has been working hard to assemble the attractions necessary to insure a big fair and the only trouble that has been experienced has been in the selections, as plenty was offered and more have been turned down than have been admitted in an effort to bow to a popular demand for a better line of exhibits and attractions.

Work Began Saturday.

Actual work on the fair began on Saturday, when many of the stock exhibits, racing stables, privilege outfits and the hundred and one things that go to make up a big fair began to arrive at the grounds. Reservations were checked up, stakes were driven and the big crowd that went out to the park yesterday obtained some sort of an idea of the immensity of the fair of this year as there was enough then on the grounds to insure a week of excellent amusement.

Secretary P. T. Strieder and his corps of assistants had their hands full with the preliminary work which was carried far into the night and which will be kept up unremittingly until everything is in place as they propose to give the people an exhibition worthy of the generous patronage that is bound to be given.

ALIBI EVIDENCE IS OFFERED IN THE HEARING

Miller Called Upon Wife Night of the Eby Shop Robbery.

[Special to The Sentinel.]

Auburn, Ind., Sept. 19.—Herman Miller's attorneys offered in his behalf in the course of his trial here this morning evidence to show that he was at the home of his wife on the night of February 17, 1907, and that he could therefore have taken no part in the robbery of the Eby barber shop at Woodburn.

This testimony was given by Carrie Miller, his stepdaughter, who stated that she remembered distinctly he was there because the second marriage of the couple took place on the Thursday following and she was able to fix the date by that fact.

Mrs. Miller sued for and obtained a divorce in the Allen superior court in January, 1907, and was married the following month after a settlement of their differences. The robbery in question is one that Miller is charged by LaDuke with having taken part in.

Some evidence was offered in impeachment of the testimony given by John Caproa, official court stenographer and most of the day was devoted to John Stout. He has been in prison for eighteen months and became ill at the Allen county jail last week and it was thought the trial would be delayed by his inability to appear. He was able to take the stand this morning and he related in detail the story he told three times before to the effect that he was asleep in a room over a saloon at the time the murder took place.

As soon as his examination has been completed Herman Miller will be put on the stand and if his evidence can be taken in a single day the defense will be ready to rest by tomorrow night. Half a day will be taken up in rebuttal and surrebuttal testimony and the case will probably be closed by the end of the week.

MAN HIGHER UP GIVEN SENTENCE

Eight Months in Prison and Fine of $5,000 for C. R. Heike.

IS CULMINATION OF SUGAR FRAUD CASES

Series of Prosecutions for Underweighing Followed Famous Raid in 1907.

New York, Sept. 19.—Charles R. Heike, former secretary and treasurer of the American Sugar Refining company, who has been called "the man higher up" in the sugar trust, was sentenced today by Judge Martin in the United States circuit court to serve eight months in the New York penitentiary on Blackwell's island and pay a fine of $5,000 on conviction of conspiring to defraud the United States government by the underweighing of sugar.

Judge Martin granted a stay of execution of the sentence pending appeal to the United States court of appeals. The court also reduced Heike's bail, which had been $25,000 pending sentence since his conviction last June, to $15,000.

Is Culminating Point.

Heike's sentence is the culminating point in the federad government's prosecutions of the American Sugar Refining company officials and employes growing out of the underweighing frauds on the Williamsburg docks of the trust brought to light by Richard Parr's famous raid on the docks in 1907.

Four weighers for the company and Oliver Spitzer, dock superintendent, were convicted in the first criminal trial in connection with the frauds and the weighers are still serving out their sentences of a year in the Blackwell's island penitentiary. Spitzer, who was sentenced to two years in the Atlanta penitentiary, was pardoned during the trial of Heike. Ernest W. Gerbracht, the refinery superintendent, and four minor employes of the company for conspiracy. He turned states' evidence and his testimony played an important part in the conviction of Heike, Gerbracht and the checkers.

The sugar company meanwhile had paid the government more than $2,000,000 out of which it was shown the customs had been defrauded by the underweighing operations. Heinke's case was a long time coming to trial, as he first pleaded immunity because of the testimony which he had given before the federal grand jury in another sugar company proceeding. His plea, however, was overruled by the supreme court. Gerbracht was sentenced last week to two years in the Atlanta penitentiary and to pay a fine of $5,000, but was allowed a stay pending appeal.

FIVE BALLOONS ARE YET TO REPORT IN RACES

One by One Big Gasbags Are Dropping After Long Flights.

Indianapolis, Sept. 19.—One by one the thirteen balloons which started in the American championship and free-for-all races at the Indianapolis motor speedway Saturday are dropping to the ground in various parts of Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia. The four balloons in the free-for-all event and four in the championship event are accounted for, leaving only five still in the air or not reported.

The Luzerne was the first to land, coming down near Noblesville, Ind., Saturday evening after being in the air only about two hours. Dr. L. E. Custer, of Dayton, O., the pilot, before starting said his balloon was too small to compete and would just make a pleasure flight.

The Drifter, of Cincinnati, which was declared the winner of the free-for-all event before the race by A. B. Lambert, the official starter, on the ground that the other three entrants were not ready to ascend on scheduled time, landed on a mountain peak near Uniontown, W. Va., at 3:05 p. m. Sunday. This balloon was piloted by Albert Holz, assisted by George R. Howard.

The University City, piloted by Captain John Berry, of St. Louis, which won the championship race last year, returned to land near McKeesport, Pa., at 3:30 a. m. Monday. The Topeka stopped near Washington, Pa., Sunday at 3:30 p. m. on account of a rain storm. This balloon carried S. Cole and F. M. Jacobs, of Topeka.

Four on the Ground.

The four balloons in the big race which are reported on the ground are: Indiana II. of Indianapolis, pilot Carl G. Fisher, aid Geo. L. Bumbaugh, near Pittsburg, Pa., Sunday, 5:10.

Million Population club, St. Louis, pilot Louis Von Phul, aid Joseph O'Reilley, at Trafford City, Pa., Sunday, 3:25 p. m.

Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, pilot Arthur F. Atherholt, aid C. B. Graham, near Dexter, O., Sunday, 10:30 a. m.

Centennial (formerly the St. Louis) of St. Louis, pilot H. E. Honeywell, aid Wooster Lambert, near Indiana, Pa., Sunday, 5:30 p. m.

This leaves in this race five balloons, America II, Miss Sophia, Hoosier II, Buckeye and New York to report. Miss Sophia was last seen near Pomeroy, O., and the Buckeye was reported to have passed over Charleston, W. Va., late yesterday, while no reports have been received of the appearance of the New York.

The America II was last heard from at 8:47 yesterday morning when it passed over Zanesville, O. It was going east flying low and fast. The pilot dropped a piece of paper on which was written:

"America II. All well."

HAS NO POWER TO PAY TAX FERRETS

Attorney General Makes a Ruling for State Tax Commission.

PURPOSE TO HAVE THE ACT AMENDED

Board After Millions of Sequestered Property—Indiana News.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 19.—In an opinion delivered to the state board of tax commissioners and made public today, Attorney General James Bingham decided that the commissioners cannot employ and pay out of any money allowed them by law tax ferrets to unearth and list sequestered taxables. The purpose of the state board in asking for the opinion was to prepare a bill for the next state legislature authorizing some method of employing such ferrets. Members of the board estimate that if they are empowered to employ tax ferrets they can list millions of dollars worth of sequestered taxables in the state.

MOOSE STRIKE LEGAL SNAG.

May Find Way to Establish School at Muncie Later.

Muncie, Ind., Sept. 19.—Officials of the Loyal Order of Moose who have been here since Saturday in an effort to complete plans for establishing a school in this city as provided at the recent meeting of the supreme council of the lodge in Baltimore, returned to their homes today without reaching an agreement because the original deed to the Eastern Indiana Normal University association the grounds and buildings of which were to be used by the order provides that property must be used for normal school purposes. The order proposed to establish an industrial and semi-military school. Attorneys for the order believe the difficulties can be overcome and the school established later.

BROODED OVER OLD DEED.

Marcus Nesbit, Who Killed Man Ten Years Ago, a Suicide.

Swayzee, Ind., Sept. 19.—Brooding over having killed a man more than a decade ago is said to be responsible for the death of Marcus Nesbit, a wealthy farmer 47 years old, living near this town, who committed suicide late yesterday by drinking carbolic acid. Nesbit shot and killed James Stillwell, a saloonkeeper, twelve year ago, and although acquitted of murder on the plea of self defense, the thought of having killed a man preyed on Nesbit's mind. Nesbit often left home and remained away days at a time. He returned last Saturday, after having been absent mysteriously for three weeks.

For a time the whole town was threatened and aid was asked from the Evansville fire department. Shifting winds brought the fire under control.

PROPOSE MEETING OF BLUE AND GRAY

Touching Scene When General Sickles and Colonel Herbert Meet.

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 19.—The innumerable activities of the national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic began today when the national headquarters were formally opened on the ocean pier at the foot of Tennessee avenue.

Things were early astir at the pier. Veterans who had not seen each other in many years held reunions and there were expressions of joy to see old comrades again and many moments of sorrow when some soldiers found that dear old friends had gone to their final rest.

The big crowd already here swelled by the inflow of thousands of veterans from all parts of the country on the moving trains. The meeting of Colonel Hillary A. Herbert, a member of President Cleveland's cabinet and a confederate officer, with Commander-in-Chief Van Sant and General Sickels still is talked of among the veterans.

Meeting of Blue and Gray.

It is probable that the proposition made by Colonel Herbert to bring about a great meeting of blue and gray will be considered during the week with the object of carrying out the suggestion.

The national headquarters opened with the first meeting of the executive committee of the council of administration.

Commander-in-Chief Van Sant and members of his staff were early on hand to lend their aid in completing the preliminaries incident to the opening of the encampment sessions on Thursday morning. Several committees of Women's Relief Corps also held their first meeting. The work of arranging for the big parade Wednesday, always a great and difficult task, is proceeding splendidly, according to those in charge. The old soldiers from the middle Atlantic and New England states are expected to make up a greater part of the big procession. Thousands of these are already here.

Commander Van Sant and Hilary A. Herbert, of Alabama, former secretary of the navy and a general in the confederate army, were the principal speakers at a large gathering of veterans on the steeplechase pier yesterday afternoon.

Eulogizes G. A. R. Members.

After a short address by the commander in chief, Gen. Herbert eulogized the members of the Grand Army and their commander. He told how the wearers of the blue and the wearers of the gray were being welded together for the cause of the Union.

Commander in Chief Van Sant and Gen. Daniel E. Sickles both announced that they would work for closer union. The former will bring the subject before the G. A. R. members later in the week. It is believed that this demonstration of friendly feeling will end the

SAYS IT'S NO WORSE FOR ROADS THAN SHIPPERS

Texas Live Stock Man in Opposition to Freight Rate Advances.

Chicago, Sept. 19.—Western railways continued today the presentation of evidence before the interstate commerce in support of their contention that a general advance in freight rates is necessary to maintain the standard of service demanded by the government and the people. Commissioners Clements, Clark and Lane conducted the hearing, which hitherto had been in the hands of examiners.

Commissioner Clements outlined the work of the week along lines of court procedure, asking the railroads, as affirmants, to show cause why the advance proposed should not be permanently suspended, and the shippers, as respondents, to show the contrary.

Previous to the taking of testimony the commissioners heard a petition from Samuel H. Cowan, of Texas, representing the Western Live Stock association. The petition declared that the increased cost of maintenance and service noted by the roads is no greater than that affecting shippers and that the roads in this particular endure no hardship not shared by shippers.

C. M. Kittle, vice president of the Illinois Central, the first witness heard, presented statistics showing the cost of operating the road since 1891. Mr. Kittle testified that in damaged freight indemnities alone this year the road had paid out $4,485,420 as against only $60,000 in 1892. The increase in the volume of freight had not kept pace during the last decade with the increase in expenses. Some increases, he said, were due to federal and state laws requiring additional safety apparatus and inspection, and regulating hours of service.

FAIL IN FIRST DARING ATTEMPT

Bad Weather Foils Aviators Seeking to Cross Alps in Airships.

RISK FLIGHT IN FACE OF DANGERS

Brig, Switzerland, Sept. 19.—The weather was unpropitious for the bold undertaking, but Mr. Weymann, the American, and George Chavez, the Peruvian, attempted the cross-Alps aeroplane flight today. Both failed, but not until they had given pretty exhibitions of high flying that promised better success in fair weather.

During the night a stiff breeze was blowing in the Simplon pass and the mountain peaks were hidden in a dense fog. There seemed little prospect that the competition would begin today. However, after daylight the wind had gone down and although it was still cloudy the intrepid Chavez and Weymann decided to risk a flight.

They got away with encouraging cries from an enormous crowd that was disappointed yesterday and had feared that bad weather would compel another postponement today.

Chavez left the starting ground, a little quadrilateral plateau overlooking the Rhone valley, first, and immediately began to rise in sweeping spirals until he had reached an altitude above the towering mountain wall opposite. Then he disappeared over the granite shoulder that marks the entrance to the Saltine gorge. A moment later the watchers at that point saw the monoplane wheel andgradually descend until it alighted on a little grassy slope at the foot of the sheer cliffs.

American's Flight Brief.

Weymann, who started a few moments after Chavez was on his way, remained in the air only eight minutes. He ascended to an altitude of about 1,700 feet where he encountered a baffling wind. In landing at the bottom of the Rhone valley he bent a wheel of his biplane.

Chavez explained that he had reached an altitude of about 6,500 feet when he was caught in a violent wind. He observed that the summit of the Simplon pass was obscured by heavy clouds and he decided to return rather than chance going further on among the rocks. He announced that he might try again later in the day.

The other aviators who propose to try for the cross-Alps prize are Cattanoe and Paillette. The American uses a biplane and the others monoplanes. The terms of the competition provide that the flight may be made any time between today and Sept. 26. The start must be near this point at the head of the Rhone valley and the contestant must fly over the Simplon pass and down across Lake Maggiore to Milan, Italy. To clear Simplon pass it will be necessary for the aviators to maintain an altitude of some 7,000 feet during the first half hour of the flight. The total distance to be covered is 75 miles, and smoking fires and other signals will point the way.

Later an official examination of his barometer showed that Chavez attained a height of 7,546 feet. This is within 863 feet of the Peruvian's world's altitude record, which has been officially placed at 8,409 feet.

PICTURE SHOWS BIG DEPOT FOR THE PENNSY

Letter Stating the Terms to Be Filed With the City.

Along with its agreement to concede to the city's demands in the vacating new Webster street and to pay for some iron and concrete work when it is opened under the tracks, the Pennsylvania company has submitted to the board of public works a picture of the new depot it proposes to construct in Fort Wayne at an estimated cost of $200,000.

Plans will be submitted and an agreement that was drawn today will be signed by the company and then the work of track elevation can be pushed to completion. The company will get the streets it wanted in return for granting a right of way for a new subway when it is needed and there is nothing in the contract that has not been thrashed over half a dozen times.

Additional tracks asked by the company will be given and it will pay for all of the increased expense rendered necessary by the changes in the scheme of elevation. No final agreement has been reached with the Wabash and the officials have given notice they cannot meet the board for a couple of weeks.

Work is Stopped.

Under orders from the board of public works the police today stopped the construction by S. F. Bowser & Co. of a track and carrier across the street at its factory to connect with the warehouse. Mr. Bowser had failed to secure a permit and the permission had never been granted to start the work. Neighbors made an objection and the matter was taken up with the board [illegible]

MAKE ANOTHER BIG LAND PURCHASE IN OHIO

Straus Firm Acquires 1,500 Acres in Paulding County Tract.

Straus Brothers and company, bankers and farm dealers of this city, have just completed the purchase of another big tract of Ohio land, having purchased a total of 1,500 acres in Paulding county from R. L. Magee, of this city.

The price is said to have been above $150,000. The land has been owned by Mr. Magee for many years, and was originally purchased for the timber upon it. With this cleared away, the land has been brought to a high state of cultivation. It is said to be the last tract in Paulding county which was first purchased as timber land, many thousand acres of which have been developed and sold by the Straus firm.

day morning was the one thing needed to make the fair a success. It put the race track in fine condition, obliterated dust and dirt and was the most beneficial thing the weather man could possibly have done for the good of the big undertaking.

Grounds in Fine Trim.

Paint, whitewash and a gang of laborers have been used to good advantage for the fair and the grounds are more presentable and attractive than they have ever been, as care for the comfort and pleasure of the visitors has been the one object of the association.

Shows have been selected with greatest regard to their fitness and the pike of this year will present a most engaging line of attractions with an entire absence of objectionable features.

Interest centers, of course, in the race card and it will be of the kind that merits a big attendance. Stables that have been on the big circuits during the season are already upon the grounds, the owners having been attracted by the liberal purse and stake offerings and the card of the opening day will be one of the best of the week.

Excursions have been arranged for and everything undertaken and carried out on the most progressive lines and the directors are willing to stand by the merits of the program that has been outlined for the week:

There will not be a dull minute during the week. The long and tiresome intermissions between the races that have marred the programs of former years have been eliminated by the engagement of the Hoagland brothers, who will put on some exciting chariot races and plenty of fun and excitement will be on tap from the time the gates are opened to the public.

TO PROBE LORIMER CASE.

Senatorial Investigating Committee Gathering at Chicago.

Chicago, Sept. 19.—Senator Weldon B. Heyburn, of Idaho, one of the republican members of the senatorial committee which is to investigate the election of Senator Lorimer, of Illinois, was the first member of the committee to arrive today in preparation for the committee sessions which are scheduled to begin tomorrow. Chairman Julius C. Burrows, senator from Michigan, is expected to arrive tonight with others of the committee.

The resolution under which the committee is acting grants greater powers of investigation than would be obtained in a criminal trial. The committee is empowered to summon witnesses and administer oaths and also is in a position to punish for contempt any witness who neglects to obey a summons. The resolution introduced in the senate last June under which the committee is to act specifically directed the investigators to "report to the senate whether in the election of Wm. Lorimer as a senator of the United States from the state of Illinois there were used or employed corrupt methods or practices."

It is expected that many of the state legislators who voted for Senator Lorimer will be summoned as witnesses, particularly those against whom formal charges of bribery and conspiracy have been made. The first session probably will be executive to map out the program of the hearings which will be public when witnesses are examined. The sessions are ordered to continue for a fortnight.

GIRL WAS IN AGONY WAITING TO BE MADE BRIDE

Landlady of Ethel Leneve Tells Girl's Suffering in Crippen Case.

London, Sept. 19.—Something of what Ethel Clara Leneve suffered as, half made with jealousy, she impatiently waited the fulfillment of Dr. Hawley H. Crippen's promise to make her his wife, prevailed at today's session of the inquest into the death of Belle Elmore, with the murder of whom the doctor and his typist are jointly charged.

In her distress Miss Leneve confided in her landlady, Mrs. Jackson, and the story that the latter told on the witness stand rivaled the most sensational evidence introduced at the preliminary trial.

Mrs. Jackson said that the accused girl gave up the room which she had occupied at the home of the witness on March 12, explaining that she was leaving to be married to Dr. Crippen. Until the first week in February Miss Leneve had slept regularly at Mrs. Jackson's. After that she stopped at the house only occasionally. She said that she spent the other nights at the homes of friends. On one occasion Miss Leneve mentioned having been at the Hill Drop Crescent home of the Crippens, early in February, to help the doctor in a search for a bank book which showed an account of $1,000. She added that a diamond tiara and rings had been found in the house and that the doctor had raised $850 on these.

Tells of Girl's Distress.

About the middle of February, the witness said, Miss Leneve appeared miserable and depressed. Such was her state that Mrs. Jackson followed the girl to her room to learn, if possible, the source of her trouble. Miss Leneve, the witness said, was in a terrifying state of agitation. Her eyes seemed fairly starting out of her head. The landlady insisted upon an explanation, telling the girl th . she must have something awful on her mind to be in such a condition. The witness said that the other replied: "Would you be surprised if I told you that it was the doctor and Miss Elmore. He was the cause of my trouble when you first knew me. She is his wife and when I see them go away together it makes me realize my position as to what she is and what I am."

Mrs. Jackson asked, "What is the use of you worrying about another woman's husband?"

To this Miss Leneve answered: "Miss Elmore has been threatening to go away with another man. Dr. Crippen has been waiting for her to do so, when he would divorce her."

Solicitor Newton, who is looking out for the interests of Crippen and Miss Leneve, closed cross examining Mrs. Jackson suggesting that her lodger's excitement was due to the landlady having resurrected a trouble which the girl experienced during her earlier association with Crippen; but the witness maintained the correctness of her evidence as given.

Opinion as to Sex.

Prof. Pepper, the patholigist, repeated the testimony which he had given at the trial in the Bow street court. In response to questions by the coroner he said:

"I can form no definite opinion as to whether the parts found were those of a male or a female. There was a suggestion that they were from the body of a female. I have formed a very strong opinion. If I take the hair discovered into consideration there is a strong presumption, almost conclusive evidence that the parts were those of a woman."

A remarkable scene occurred with the entrance of Gen. Sickles into the building. As he swung down the aisle the veterans arose as a man, and four of his command lifted him, chair and all, and placed him on the platform, while the band played "Dixie," and the crowd cheered. As Gen. Sickles grasped the folds of a huge silk flag with Commander Van Sant, Gen. Herbert stepped up, and laying one hand upon the shoulder of the grizzled veteran and the other on the flag, said:

"Had I been told when I was in Antietam that in years to come I would stand side by side with federal soldiers and grasp the stars and stripes with them I would have been insulted. But I love that old flag now."

Commander Van Sant paid striking tribute to the southern veterans, saying that he was glad to meet them on friendly terms and that he had no desire to meet them again in war. He said he was proud of the fact that no American army ever surrendered to anything but another American army and declared there was no longer a North and a South, but all are one great American people.

DECLARES ANEW FOR IMPROVEMENT LEVIES

Labor's Committee Again Urges River and Lighting Tax.

Declaring anew its position in favor of the city tax levies both for river improvement and the continued development of the city municipal lighting plant, the special committee of the Fort Wayne Federation of Labor has addressed a communication to the city council of Fort Wayne. The letter follows:

"Fort Wayne, Ind., Sept. 19, 1910.—To the Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne.—Gentlemen: At the last meeting of the city council when the question of fixing the tax levy for the ensuing year was being considered there was exhibited a sentiment which seems to endanger the establishment of the levy for river bank improvement as outlined by the Fort Wayne Civic Improvement association. A meeting of the special committee appointed by the Fort Wayne Federation of Labor, to act in conjunction with the Civic Improvement association, was held yesterday afternoon for the purpose of formulating a final expression regarding the proposed levy now before the council. In expressing ourselves we wish to assure the councilmen that we are voicing practically the unanimous sentiment of the entire membership of the affiliated unions of this city. The Fort Wayne Federation by vote unanimously declared itself in favor of a reasonable levy for river bank improvement purposes, it being then contemplated that the levy should approximate 5 cents. We wish to reiterate that we believe the improvement to be one of the most necessary and most important ever suggested or undertaken by the city. We urge upon the councilmen, whose constituents we are, that they support the civic improvement levy as recommended by the mayor and the controler.

"We also desire to call the attention of the council to the fact that the Fort Wayne Federation of Labor has repeatedly by resolution expressed its unqualified faith in the city's municipal lighting plant and that by recent vote it declared in favor of a continuance of the 7½c levy for municipal lighting, both public and commercial, and also declared that organized labor will resent any tampering with that levy as it now stands and as it has been recommended. We therefore respectfully urge upon the councilmen to sustain the levy as recommended providing for 4½c for river improvement and 7½c for municipal lighting.

Respectfully submitted,
"F. J. SCHWANZ,
"EDWARD MILLER,
"J. A. LECILLER,
"GART SHOBER,
'Special Committee Fort Wayne Federation of Labor."... ....

NEWS OF FORT WAYNE'S NEIGHBORS

ADJUDGED INSANE AND CANNOT MARRY

Relatives Interfere and Prevented Him from Securing Marriage License.

Portland, Ind., Sept. 19.—John W. Winegardner, aged 45 years and a resident of Pike township, was on Saturday afternoon adjudged of unsound mind in the circuit court, and Luther Ashley, his brother-in-law, was appointed guardian to manage his estate.

During the past several days he has become infatuated with a Mrs. Susan Hardy, residing near Pennville, and Saturday forenoon they appeared at the office of the county clerk and applied for a license to marry. Being advised by relatives of Winegardner of his mental condition the county clerk refused to issue the license to the couple and had prepared a certificate certifying the application to the circuit court, but before this could be completed a petition asking that Winegardner be declared of unsound mind and that a guardian be appointed to take charge of and manage his estate was filed and the guardian appointed.

With a guardian in charge of his affairs it will be impossible for Winegardner to marry Mrs. Hardy, who has already been married twice, one of her former husbands having died and the other divorced from her.

Winegardner owns a half interest in a forty-acre farm and also has other property besides money in a local bank. He is both mentally and physicaly afflicted. When a lad he suffered from a spinal ailment which developed into paralysis, leaving his entire right side affected.

WHITLEY WOMAN DEAD.

Columbia City, Ind., Sept. 19.—Mrs. Enos Goble, aged 76 years, one of the best known women of Washington township, died Saturday at her home after an illness of eight weeks, death resulting from old age and a very severe attack of stomach trouble. She had resided in the county for sixty years.

WILL HAVE NEW PARSONAGE.

Peru, Ind., Sept. 19.—At a meeting of the board of trustees of the First Baptist church it was decided to build a new parsonage, the plans and specifications for which were approved. It will be a frame structure and will cost $5,000. The lot on which it will be erected was donated to the church by the Shirks.

FAILING SIGHT IS NOT FATAL

The point has been recently made that no case of Chronic Bright's Disease has ever recovered in which the nervous system had so far collapsed as to degenerate the optic nerve.

Numbers of such cases have recovered. In at least three instances the patients were blind, and there have been scores in which the eyesight was failing.

Shortly after the great fire in 1906 there were assembled at Burns' Hammam Baths, Eddy street, San Francisco, three people, whose lives hung on a thread. All had been condemned to death. The three were Mr. Frank H. Winter, Deputy United States Marshall of Honolulu; Mr. C. B. Nash of the S. P. R. R. Co., a resident of Oakland, and a Mr. Lawton, also of Oakland. All three had extreme cases of Bright's Disease and the disease had so far progressed in the cases of Nash and Lawton that the eyesight was disappearing. The case of Marshal Winter did not present the eye symptoms, but we simply include him as he was there at the same time and will say in parenthesis that he was so swollen with dropsy that the Honolulu physicians had given up the case and it didn't look like he could live two weeks.

Having particularly in mind the cases of Nash and Lawton, as they were recent and presented the supposed fatal eye symptom, and as we had not been advised of the results obtained, we took the matter up with our physician and asked for his report. It includes all three of the cases assembled at the baths for sweating, as above named, and is as follows: "All three of the patients are well. Conductor Nash is on his train again. Lawton has made a recovery and advices from Winter within the last two months assert his continued health and activity."

Recoveries under Fulton's Renal Compound are being reported in all kinds of kidney cases from those involving the heretofore fatal eye symptom down, but where this symptom is in evidence the help of a skilled physician is often needed to increase the eliminations and hold up the heart, etc., until the inflammation in the kidney begins to respond to the Renal Compound.

Kidney Disease, whether in the first stage or in the chronic and supposed incurable form, is now positively curable in a great majority of cases.

We desire to hear from and advise with those not recovering by the third week. John J. Fulton Company, 645 Battery St., San Francisco. Literature mailed free.

Fulton's Renal compound can be had in your city at The D. & N. Pharmacy, 624 Calhoun St.

STRUCK BY LIMITED; MET INSTANT DEATH

Body of Unfortunate Woman Was Driven Through Cattle Guard Fence.

Marion, Ind., Sept. 19.—Mrs. Grant Hiatt was instantly killed and her body driven through a cattle guard fence when she was struck by an Indiana Union traction car at Hiatt's crossing, near Jonesboro, Saturday night.

Mrs. Hiatt and her husband flagged the car, thinking it was a local, but it was a limited and when they attempted to cross the track in front of it Mrs. Hiatt was struck. Hiatt escaped.

ILLEGAL USE OF MAILS.

Fraud in Promising to Secure Motormen Paying Positions.

Goshen, Ind., Sept. 19.—Lucien W. Brown, of Elkhart, formerly promoter of an interurban correspondence school, was arrested by United States Marshal H. C. Pettit and gave bond for his appearance before United States Commissioner Warren Berkey in Goshen Tuesday, on the charge of using the mails to defraud.

Brown is charged with using the mails to defraud the public. He operated a motorman's correspondence school for several years prior to a few months ago and it is charged that he promised all of his students positions with electric railways with salaries of from $60 to $90 per month immediately after securing diplomas. It is also alleged that Brown declared himself to be on intimate terms with the officials of several roads and that he had secured positions for several hundred of his graduates.

GIVEN 191 DAYS IN JAIL.

Notorious Logansport Drunk Got That Sentence.

Logansport, Ind., Sept. 19.—William Smith, known generally as "Drunken Bill," was fined $1 and costs and given in addition a six months' jail sentence in police Saturday, which means that if he serves the entire time out he will be confined in the county jail for 191 days, including the joyful Christmas and New Year's holidays. However, Bill has received some long sentences before now, but he has always managed to get out before the expiration of the term. His latest stunt, which earned for him the honor of getting the longest sentence ever given by a police judge here, was going home in an intoxicated condition and cursing and beating his ten-year-old son, who was lying in bed sick. His wife filed the charge against him. When Smith is intoxicated he never strikes a man. He has beaten his mother, who is about 80 years old, his wife, and now the ten-year-old boy.

AGED ARMY NURSE.

Served as Such During Civil War—Died at Age of 83.

Goshen, Ind., Sept. 19.—Miss Margaret M. Miller, a resident of Goshen more than half a century ago, but for a long time living in Chicago, died at the residence of W. E. Jacobs, with whom she made her home. The remains were brought here for burial Saturday afternoon and the funeral service was held at the Presbyterian church at 2 o'clock, Rev. E. A. Vannuys officiating. Interment was made in Oak Ridge cemetery. Her age was 83 years.

Miss Miller was a nurse by profession and served in that capacity during the whole period of the civil war. She was also the last survivor of the fourteen charter members of the Presbyterian church of Goshen, which was organized March 13, 1853, with Rev. H. L. Vannuys as its pastor.

TAX LEVY FOR GARY

Is Advanced From $1.09 to $1.55 by the Council.

Gary, Ind., Sept. 19.—The finance committee of the city council at its regular meeting decided to advance the tax levy for the city to $1.55, which is considerably heavier than it was last year, when it was $1.09. And this, too, despite the fact that the 130 saloons of the city will give a revenue of $47,590 this year. Last year the city was without saloons and no revenue was received from this source.

WHIPPED PUPIL SEVERELY.

Huntington School Teacher Was So Charged; Case Dismissed.

Huntington, Ind., Sept. 19.—The case against Mrs. Florence E. Foote, one of the oldest teachers of Huntington, principal of the Allen street school, has been dismissed. Mrs. Foote was charged with having punished the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Payne in a manner too severe in the judgment of the parents. It was admitted by the defendant that the child had been whipped hard, but at the same time the contention was that it was a punishment only necessary. The mayor, prosecutor and attorney for the defense conferred with Payne and it was finally agreed to dismiss.

THREE SHARE IN ESTATE.

Others Had Received Their Portions in Advance.

Bluffton, Ind., Sept. 19.—The will of Harriet Dunaway, who died at her home in Liberty township a few weeks ago, was filed for probate in circuit court Saturday. By the terms of the will she left all of her property, real and personal to three children, namely Eli George Dunaway, Henry A. Dunaway, and Harriet Ellen Dunaway, each of whom is to have one-third of her property. She explains that the property is bequeathed in this manner for the reason that the other children received their share from the estate in advance, and she believes that all have been treated fairly and received their just due from the estate.

HEAD TERRIBLY CRUSHED.

Fell Off Moving Freight Train and Was Killed.

Hartford City, Ind., Sept. 19.—Gus Loigos, an Italian gradeworker with the Panhandle gang, was instantly killed Saturday evening east of this city and his body was brought to the morgue. While the manner in which he met his death is not exactly known, it is thought that he was standing on the bumpers of a moving freight train and fell off. The wheels ran over his right leg, completely severing it, and also his head was crushed beyond recognition.

STOLE A DOZEN CHICKENS.

Bluffton, Ind., Sept. 19.—Homer Stogdill, living west of the city on the Mrs. Eliza Crosiie farm, would like to catch a thief who on Thursday night robbed his coops of a dozen fine chickens, and then to just show they had their nerve with them stole a load of stove wood. He left no clew.

It must be admitted that Colonel Roosevelt, who declares that he has enjoyed every job he ever had, has a marvellously diversified capacity for enjoyment.

Colonel Roosevelt's occasional half-hearted "endorsement" of President Taft in the course of his attacks upon the bosses may be inserted merely to make the riddle harder to solve.

Mere charges of grafting are said to have caused the resignation of the chief of police of San Francisco. This may be accepted as an indication that times are really changing in the western metropolis. In bygone days nobody in that city thought of retiring until after it had been really proven.

The matter of river improvement and civic beautification should not be beclouded by other issues that come in for a share of Fort Wayne's attention. It is important that the city, progressive in other avenues, take the first step in this direction without more delay than is absolutely necessary.

New York street railway corporations which magnanimously contributed to the campaign funds of not only the democratic and republican parties, but to the financial aid of "everybody who ever ran for office" were apparently determined to have some friends at court, no matter what happened.

Artistic handiwork that closely resembles that of the "practical" politician has just been disclosed in the Illinois primary law by the interesting discovery that the statute provides punishment for the voter who sells his vote or accepts a bribe, but it fails to catalogue the man who does the bribing or buys the vote. Under this system the man who wants votes badly enough to buy them appears to be immune from punishment.

The government's census enumerators were able to find but 2,185,283 people in Chicago when the official count of noses was made. But it will require more comprehensive and satisfying proof than Uncle Sam's mere statement to convince the characteristic Chicagoan that the population of the Windy City isn't about twice as great as that.

Two incidents at the white house during the past week stand out clear-cut and undimmed amid the seething maelstrom of political skirmishing, official uproar and sedate and weighty affairs of state. One of these is the arrival of Charles Taft, younger son of the president, in his first pair of long trousers. The other is the addition of Pauline, a blue-blooded milch cow, to the presidential dairy. Both figured in painstaking detail in the week's news from the national capital.

Fort Wayne should not wait for Mayor Grice's proclamation for a general "clean-up" day to attend to a matter that ought to have attention at once. Aside from the sanitary advantage to be derived, the city should be in spick and span attire for the coming of the Indiana Medical society and the State Association of County Commissioners during the present month, as well as for the state convention of the Women's Christian Temperance union early in October.

It is all very well for the government to announce that it will seek to dissolve the sugar trust, but in the light of past performances at trust-busting by the lawyers attached to the legal department of the national government, the general public will be wise to restrain any bubbling manifestation of glee until the thing is over and the sugar combine is really disintegrated. Results in previous attempts along similar lines have not been fraught with results either permanent or beneficial to the man who is wrestling with the problem of the high cost of living.

Speaking of insurgent platforms, the declaration of Wisconsin republicans, which is due this week, is expected to set the real pace in its opposition to Cannonism, Aldrichism and a wide variety of other isms which administration republicans have fathered during the past year or two. Senator La-Follette has been assigned the task of formulating Wisconsin's expression upon these topics, and in all probability the most virulent verbal castigation the bosses have yet known will seem pacific and mild-mannered by comparison with the broadside Wisconsin is getting ready to fire. It will perhaps be the most spectacular rhetorical display of the present year's campaign.

It is said that President Taft, in his forthcoming message to congress, will give considerable prominence to his recommendation that at least $2,000,000 be appropriated for immediate use in beginning the work of fortifying the Panama canal. The president believes this to be a work in which there should be no delay. A year ago he made a similar recommendation to congress, but it encountered opposition, and with the multiplicity of other matters then deemed of more immediate importance, the issue was not pushed. The plans for the protection of the canal as recommended by the commission or army engineers included the erection of fortifications on the isthmus at each end of the canal, and also the fortification of the group of small islands near the Pacific entrance. The cost of these fortifications has been variously estimated as high as $14,000,000.

CHANLER MAKES NO MOVE.

Suit on Tailor's Bill May Be Halting Diva's Eccentric Husband.

New York, Sept. 19.—In spite of many rumors to the effect that suit would be begun by Robert W. Chanler to set aside the ante-nuptial agreement by the terms of which he divested himself of almost his entire fortune in favor of Lina Cavalierri, the singer, no legal move was made in that direction by the attorneys for Mr. Chanler today.

An action to recover $987 alleged to be due on a tailor's bill will be brought against Chanler in the city court tomorrow, however, which may have some bearing to the agreement in question. The contention may be made by the attorneys for Mme. Cavaleiri that the agreement gives her claim priority over that of any and all creditors. In opposition to this may be urged that the agreement has not been formally filed with the county clerk.

HEARS MEAT WITNESSES.

Chicago Grand Jury Likely to Indict New York Packer.

Chicago, Sept. 19.—Witnesses whose testimony is said to be needed for the purpose of bringing an indictment against a New York meat packer were heard by the federal grand jury today.

Judge Landis in the United States circuit court entered a continuance until Oct. 25 of the contempt cases against George A. Willetts, William W. Shaw and W. A. Helander, employes of Armour & Co. The charge against these men arose out of the destruction of the shorthand notes demanded of Armour & Co. by the grand jury.

Francis A. Fowler, a department manager for Swift & Co., who was recently indicted, furnished bonds in the sum of $20,000 today.

LIGHTNING HITS STATUE.

Memorial to Henry Clay Badly Damaged in Storm.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 19.—Lightning today struck the statue of Henry Clay in the Lexington cemetery, shattering an arm and leg of the figure. The memorial was unveiled in July and took the place of a similar monument which was struck by lightning in July 1903. Part of the cost of $12,000 was defrayed by a legislative appropriation.

A new system of electric signaling for mines, to give an alarm in case of fire or other mishap, operated by a hand-driven generator, has been perfected.

CHILD IS ENLISTED IN WARFARE ON FLY PERIL

Eleven-Year-Old Girl Joins Health Commissioner's Chicago Army.

Chicago, Sept. 19.—Flies and unsanitary conditions are tabooed in the vicinity of the home of Miss Irene Ferris, the 11-year-old recruit to Health Commissioner Evans' army of fly fighters. Miss Irene became so impressed with the harm that flies can do and the danger of consumption from foul air that she wrote an essay on the subject and the health commissioner incorporated it in his weekly bulletin.

"Flies are more dangerous than dogs or wild animals," said Miss Irene last night. "They kill more people than lions, bears, wolves and tigers. They crawl on things that have deadly germs and then they carry the germs away and leave them on milk bottles and on bread and meat.

Flies are Everywhere.

"They are a good deal worse on meat, the doctor said, because they get on meat and lay their eggs in it and unless people are careful they may eat the meat and the nasty eggs.

"Flies are everywhere but bears, lions and tigers stay in the woods where they belong and don't hurt people unless people come where they are, and then they are not so very dangerous.

"But you can't get away from the flies that carry the deadly germs unless you are very clean. If things are covered up and no garbage is allowed to stand around, why, the flies don't like it and they go somewhere else.

"We don't have any flies around our house because we don't give them a chance to come in, that's why. And we have lots of fresh air, too.

Bad Air is Dangerous.

"Bad air is just about as dangerous as flies. When there's a lot of people in a house they have to keep breathing all the time and every time they take a breath that spoils just that much air. If you don't look out you will be breathing some one else's breath, and you might get germs in your system that way.

"I've seen kids white and sickly, and I know why, too. If they would look out about the flies and the bad air they wouldn't get that way. But they probably haven't been to our school, where they can hear such things. Besides, there's lots of kids who don't pay any attention when they get a piece of good advice, I guess."

FIND CENSUS COUNT IRREGULAR

Tangle in Minneapolis, However, Has Nearly Been Adjusted.

Minneapolis, Sept. 19.—Following the report from Washington last night that Director of the Census Durand has held up the figures on Minneapolis because of irregularities, it was learned that the lodging house district had not been covered in one day as required by the regulations, but that several days had been taken by the enumerators for the task. A recount of one district conducted by the Washington officials resulted in a shrinkage of 2,000 and a further probe was made. Lack of street books in the portfolios, which the rules state must be inclosed, was another reason for the delay in the figures.

Supervisor Cairns believes that the tangle has about been adjusted, and that a report on the city's population will be issued within a short time. It is given out unofficially as 304,000, a gain of 100,000 in ten years.

HAD SCRATCHED FOR 28 YEARS

Till It Got to be Second Nature—Suffering Endless and Without Relief—Cuticura Made Skin as Clear as a Baby's.

"If I had known of the Cuticura Remedies fifty years ago it would have saved me two hundred dollars and an immense amount of suffering. My disease (psoriasis) commenced on my head in a spot not larger than a cent. It spread rapidly over my body and got under my nails. The scales would drop off of me all the time and my suffering was endless and without relief. A thousand dollars would not tempt me to have this disease over again. I am a poor man but feel rich to be free of what some of the doctors called leprosy, some ringworm, psoriasis, etc. I took ——— and ——— sarsaparillas over a year and a half but got no cure. I cannot praise the Cuticura Remedies too much. They made my skin as clear and free from scales as a baby's. All I used of them was two cakes of Cuticura Soap, three boxes of Cuticura Ointment and three bottles of Cuticura Resolvent. If you had been there and said you would have cured me for two hundred dollars, you would have had the money. I was covered with the scales but by using Cuticura I was soon as clear as any person ever was. This was over twenty-two years ago and for a long time, through force of habit, I used to rub my hands over my arms and legs to scratch, but to no purpose—I was well. I had scratched twenty-eight years and it got to be a kind of second nature to me. Dennis Downing, Waterbury, Vt., November 27, 1909."

Cuticura is the most economical treatment for affections of the skin and scalp. A cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment are often sufficient. Sold throughout the world. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston. Mailed free, 32-page Cuticura book, an Authority on the Skin.

C. POYNTER REDFERN

New York, Sept. 19.—Alas, the poor hobble! Just as we were getting to like it its death knell is sounded and there is great gloom in the camps of the comic artists, vaudeville headliners, contributing poets and comic opera stars, for their bread winner of the summer is soon to be as antiquated and forgotten as a republican majority in Maine or plans for the relief of the subway crush.

Announcement that the hobble skirt has been tried, found guilty and sentenced was made today on the steamer Adriatic, of the White Star line. The announcer was Mr. C. Poynter Redfern, of the dry goods and dress designing firm of Redfern & Co., of London and Paris. Mr. Redfern comes to this country to establish a new branch of his firm, and is accompanied by Sir William Treloar, formerly lord mayor of London, the president of the Redfern company.

Nothing could have aroused Mr. Redfern more than to ask him to tell what he thought of the hobble skirt and its vogue.

"It is horrible," he exclaimed to an Evening Telegram reporter while on the way up the bay. "I think the hobble skirt disbusting, and the way it has been exaggerated makes it even more so.

"It was not so bad when it first came into fashion with the hobble at the knees and rather loose, but now they make them so narrow at the ankles that a woman cannot walk. She has to hop, and this could not last. I have never made any skirts of that variety and am satisfied that the style cannot last more than a few weeks."

When asked what he thought would be the successor to the hobble skirt, Mr. Redfern said that the style that would follow had already been seen.

"The new style has already been set," he said, "by Miss Cecil Sorrel. A couple of weeks ago she appeared at the opera in London in a Louis XV skirt and it caused a sensation. This styles is a graceful, flowing one, with a long loose skirt, which embodies all the artistic points in which the hobble skirt fails. This season will see the Louis XV style prevailing both in London and Paris and naturally in New York."

MAY AVERT BIG CLASH.

New Peers Likely to Strengthen Present Liberal Cabinet.

Lisbon, Sept. 19.—It is believed that King Manuel's appointment of sixteen peers, all supporters o fthe present liberal cabinet, will afford sufficient new strength to the government to avoid the necessity of a dissolution of parliament and new elections which the republicans declare would mean revolution. The government continues its campaign against the Jesuits and is proceeding with the expulsion of other religious orders which re-entered Portugal after the issuance of the decree of 1901, but which are not devoted to the work of charity or teaching as provided in the decree.

Gentlemen:

As one of the oldest advertisers in the United States, I feel that a word of commendation is due your publication.

For almost half a century I have made a specialty of the preparation of DR. LYON'S Perfect Tooth Powder, with the result that to-day DR. LYON'S Perfect Tooth Powder is used by people of refinement in every part of the world where the use of a tooth brush is known.

In the spring of 1866 I began a careful study of the methods of other successful advertisers, and started a series of experiments in advertising, using magazines, circulars, street car cards and booklets; but finally decided that continuous DAILY NEWSPAPER advertising was most profitable form of publicity.

In answer to your query "To what do I attribute my marvelous success?" I would say: Two things:

First a superior article of absolute purity and efficiency, and

Second: To CONTINUOUS NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING in the best mediums; and in justice to your publication, I want to say right here that there is not a newspaper on our list that has given us better results than the SENTINEL.

Yours very truly,

I. W. Lyon, D.D.S.

MAY MEAN BIG LOCKOUT.

Manchester, Eng., Sept. 19.—The federation of master cotton spinners met today and decided on a general lockout on Oct. 1 unless the Fern mill dispute at Oldham is settled before that date.

In the event of a lockout 150,000 operatives would be affected directly. The action follows the refusal of the Fern mill employes to submit a local grievance to arbitration.

Georgia Man Thought She Had Interfered In Love Affair.

Abbeville, Ga., Sept. 19.—B. Manass today shot and killed Mrs. Cole H. Williams, wife of former Mayor Williams, because she had interfered to prevent the success of his suit for the hand of her sister, Mrs. Eugene Royal, a widow. The latter saw the shooting. As Mrs. Williams expired, Manass turned his revolver upon the widow, wounding her in the hip and then killing himself with two shots in the head.

OFF UNTIL TOMORROW.

Opening of Racing Season at Lexington Is Postponed.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 19.—Because of heavy rains which flooded the track the opening of the fall racing season in the west scheduled for today, was postponed until tomorrow. The postponement of the races necessitated the throwing out of today's entries and the reopening of the entry list to the same races.

The board of directors of the Lexington race track announced that the meeting will be run off according to the schedule except that each day's cards will be one day late.

IN THE CHURCHES

REV. H. B. MASTER ELECTED DELEGATE TO LABOR FEDERATION

City Ministerial Association Will Enlarge Scope of Work—Other Business.

The City Ministerial association at its meeting this forenoon at the First Presbyterian church elected Rev Henry B. Master, the pastor of the First Presbyterian church, as the delegate from the association to the Fort Wayne Federation of Labor for the coming year. The Federation accords the delegate a seat and a voice in its regular meetings.

Among other matters considered was a communication from the ladies of the W. C. T. U. stating that their state convention would be held in this city during the middle of October, lasting over Sunday, October 16, and asking that the pastors allow them to place in their pulpits on the Sunday morning of their convention the visiting speakers selected by the association committee. The report was favorably received and the request will be granted by the pastors.

On motion a committee consising of Rev. J. K. Cecil, chairman, and Revs. Fox, Vichert and Todd, was selected to co-operate with the executive committee for the missionary convention to be held in this city during the latter part of October and the first part of November.

Some time was spent in discussing plans for the enlargement of the scope of the work of the association for the coming year. The matter was referred to the appropriate committee and the detailed plans will be made public later.

The members of the association and laymen from the different churches of this city will meet this evening at the First Presbyterian church to discuss matters pertaining to the evangelistic meetings to be held in this city by Dr. Chapman.

TWO NEW THIRTY-THIRD DEGREE MASONS FOR FORT WAYNE.

JAMES B. HARPER.

JOSEPH L. GRUBER.

The highest point in Masonry—the thirty-third degree—will be attained by James B. Harper and Joseph L. Gruber, both of this city, during the sessions of the supreme council which begin tomorrow in Detroit and continue for three days.

This is incidentally a special distinction for Fort Wayne, as at the last meeting of the supreme council one year ago in Boston there were but fourteen nominations from this state for that high honor.

Both Mr. Harper and Mr. Gruber have long been prominent in Masonic circles in this city. At the present time Mr. Harper is sovereign master of Darius Council, Princes of Jerusalem, of the Scottish Rite branch, and Mr. Gruber is prelate of the local Commandery of the Knights Templar.

With Mr. Harper and Mr. Gruber there will be a total of nine 33d degree Masons in this city. The others are William Geake, W. W. Rockhill, G. W. Pixley, C. E. Read, John H. Bass, C. A. Wilding and Dr. C. B. Stemen. Messrs. Geake, Rockhill, Pixley, Read, Stemen and Frank Stouder will accompany Mr. Harper and Mr. Gruber to Detroit this evening, where the rites will be conferred tomorrow night. Several of those going to Detroit will be accompanied by their wives.

FEASTED, SANG AND TALKED AT THEIR BANQUET

Old-Time College Spirit Rose Anew in Hearts of Michigan Alumni.

The spirit and enthusiasm of the days when they were students at the University of Michigan was aroused anew in the hearts of the alumni of that institution at the banquet held Saturday evening in the Anthony hotel. The manner in which the men of the classes of thirty, twenty and ten years ago arose in their seats and sang and cheered for their alma mater was something, which many of them said afterwards, they didn't know they could do.

All the undergraduates and the soon-to-be undergraduates of the school also participated in the banquet and it was considerably through their younger enthusiasm that the voices of the alumni were brought out in full volume.

Talks All Short and Snappy.

There were just fifty who sat down to the sumptuous repast after the college yells had all been given. Hon. Perry A. Randall, the chairman of the evening, started the speakers in introducing the toastmaster, Hon. James M. Barrett. Mr. Barrett crowned himself with laurels in his introductions and thrusts at college friends. Edward G. Hoffman was called upon for the toast, "Michigan Spirit," and his stories and jokes made a big hit. Dr. Charles Rothschild was asked to respond to "A University Club" and something very practical developed from his talk. "Undergraduate Life" was the gist of a toast by Dr. J. H. Gilpin and William N. Ballou entertained with an eulogy of "The Laws." "The Future" was dwelt upon by Hon. T. E. Ellison and others who were asked for impromptu's were F. R. Shoaff and Walter Seavey. Prof. Philip Bursley, representing the Michigan faculty, told of the work that is being done to secure a new "Michigan Union" club house. It is proposed to raise a million dollars for this purpose, but he withheld a plea for subscriptions until next spring.

University Club Likely.

Following Dr. Rothschild's talk upon "A University Club," it was unanimously moved that the Michigan alumni take the initiative in forming such an organization. A meeting of all the university men in the city is to be called soon, when the first steps will be taken. It is said there are over five hundred university men in the city of Fort Wayne.

Telegrams of best wishes and felicitations were sent from the banquet table to President Emeritus James B. Angell and President Harry B. Hutchins, at Ann Arbor. Neither was able to attend the banquet and their absence was the cause of much regret.

SCHOOL OF INSTRUCTION.

Head of the L. O. T. M. Coming Here Soon.

Mrs. Bina West, supreme record keeper of the Ladies of the Maccabees, has advised the two local hives that she will be here October 11 and 12 to conduct a schoool of instruction and otherwise work in the interest of the order. The local hives are arranging a membership campaign with a view of having a big class for initiation on that occasion. They will also give a public entertainment and reception in honor of their supreme officer.

EFFORT TO AUCTION CHILDREN; NEAR RIOT ENSUES

Pittsburg Pastor's Plan to Illustrate Point Stirs Up Trouble.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 19.—There was near rioting at Circleville, Pa., Saturday evening when Rev. Thomas G. Boord, pastor of the Wylie Avenue Baptist church, Pittsburg, after advertising that he would sell two of his five children to the highest bidder made an effort to auction the children off. The minister never got an opportunity to finish the sale as one thousand persons protested and he was nearly mobbed.

Matters were no better yesterday morning when the Rev. Mr. Boord appeared in his pulpit in Pittsburg, for he was subjected to many slurs there from his congregation, many of whom would listen to no explanation.

Late Saturday the following circular was passed about Circleville, which is the home village of Rev. Mr. Boord:

Circular Tells of Sale.

"Auction tonight. The undersigned will sell at public auction his two children, as hereinafter described:

"One boy, 7 years old, fair complexion, weighs forty-five pounds, strong body and mind. Never has been to school, but would make a competent newsboy and would be able to earn good wages in three years. Would be great support to the buyer in less than eight years.

"One girl, aged 10 years, dark complexion, weighs fifty-three pounds. Has had four years' schooling. Was the youngest pupil in her class. Can execute any household duties, such as plain sewing and cooking, dish washing, etc. For a child's nurse cannot be excelled. Will be competent to keep an ordinary house in six years' time.

"The sale will take place at the corner of Third and Main streets at 7:30 tonight. Terms and conditions of sale and reasons for selling will be made known before the sale begins. The purchaser must be a good moral person."

Crowd Refuses to Listen.

At the appointed time, the minister appeared with the two children and made the explanation that he had five children and was not able to support them—that he wanted to sell two in order to keep the other three. Some persons in the crowd became abusive and Boord finally announced the postponement of the auction.

Late yesterday afternoon Boord, who is a prohibition candidate for the state legislature, declared that it had been but a joke on his part, that he had intended to illustrate a certain point with the children as examples, but the crowd took him seriously.

VETERANS COME TOMORROW.

Reunion of One Hundredth Indiana Regiment Here.

The annual reunion of the veterans of the One Hundredth Indiana Volunteer infantry will be held in this city all day tomorrow in the assembly room of the court house. The expected attendance is several hundred.

The One Hundredth was mustered at Indianapolis in '62 and saw several years of active fighting. Its present officers are: George I. Haswell, of this city, president; Mathias Kramer, also of this city, vice president, and Theodore Upson, of Lagrange, secretary and treasurer.

The morning and afternoon tomorrow will be spent in meeting, registering, transacting business and the like and the evening will be spent in recalling the days of battle at an old-fashioned campfire.

BAD NEGRO SHOOTS UP TOWN OF DUNKIRK

Is Captured Later While Taking Nap Beside His Guns.

Logansport, Ind., Sept. 19.—After having shot up the tow nof Dunkirk and terrorized the inhabitants, Henry Lay, colored, was arrested yesterday as he lay asleep in his shack with a revolver in his hand and a shotgun beside him. Lay, it is alleged, went to the home of Montravime Simmons and demanded that Simmons send his daughter out to meet him. Simmons refused, and Lay at once began a bombardment of the house. He shot out the window panes, perforated the doors and the terrified occupants of the house took refuge in the cellar.

Lay then went to the home of Lazarus Jones, it is said, and, finding the family away, battered down the door and obtained two shotguns. He returned to the Simmons residence and fired shot after shot into the house until he became wearied, and, going to his own cabin, he placed his armory beside him and fell asleep.

The police here were notified, and a detail went to Dunkirk, arrested Lay and placed him in jail here. Seven years ago Lay entered the home of Thomas McMannavy, white, and at the point of a revolver forced McNannavy's daughter to accompany him to this city, where he was arrested by the police and shot by McMannavy as he was being taken to jail.

ATTEMPTS "DASH OF DEATH."

Logansport Boy Sustained Five Broken Ribs in Mad Ride.

Logansport, Ind., Sept. 19.—In an attempt to emulate the feats of a "dash of death" performer, Albert Easterday, 14, yesterday sustained five fractured ribs and other injuries. In building the central heating station a big incline has been constructed upon which workingmen wheel brick. Easterday attempted to race down this incline on his bicycle and the wheel shot off the edge of the incline, about twenty feet from the ground.

KEYSTONE STATE IS PACEMAKER IN WATERWAYS

Pennsylvania Was First to Systematize Inland Transportation.

Williamsport, Pa., Sept. 19.—In the present controversy concerning the revival of canal industries throughout the country, and the construction of tunnels under the rivers for connecting prominent cities, it is interesting to note that Pennsylvania led all the states in the early development of systems of inland freight and passenger traffic.

Throughout the suburbs of Philadelphia may be traced many quaint reminders of the earliest efforts in establishing canals and railroads in this country. Leiperville, Avondale and other historic towns and villages point with pride to the firts railroad landmarks and the beginning of canal experiments, and it is also well known that the first tunnel in the United States was constructed near Lebanon in 1822-23 as a part of the Union canal, connecting the canals along the Susquehanna river with those of the Schuylkill, thus giving a continuous thread of water from the Quaker City to Lock Haven.

While these early beginnings in the development of inland traffic are appreciated by patriotic Pennsylvanians in the light of the renewed efforts of this state in taking the lead in establishing present-day canal industries upon a more profitable basis, even more interesting at present are the engineering feats that have been accomplished in overcoming obstacles in canal building. These may be encountered along almost any of the Pennsylvania canals now in use, but the most quaint and practical devices may be studied along the Delaware & Lehigh canal, especially where the towpath leads along the Lehigh for several miles, the shallow portion of the river forming a break in the artificial waterway.

Bridge and Ford for Tow Paths.

In one section along the Lehigh river it is necessary to cross from one bank of the stream to the other for better tow path facilities and a more even depth of waterway, and the tow path is swung directly across the river by means of a low suspension bridge. Another quaint tow path is a narrow ford built through the edge of a waterfall, and many devices for inland traffic are retained from the earliest days of stage coaching and pointed out by Williamsport residents.

"Aside from the old-time farm wagon," say these persons, "it would be hard to find a more uncomfortable vehicle than the stage coach, as it swayed and plunged, chucked and bumped over the roots of giant forest trees down into mud holes, hub deep, bruising the passengers, who often had to get out and with heavy levers pry the wheels out of a bottomless slough. Finally came the heaven of comfort in travel after such suffering, in the canal packet boat. Noiseless, jarless, gliding along, safe and luxurious, it afforded a means of serene enjoyment never approached by any subsequent public conveyance, and it was one of the old time joys that had no bitterness in it.

"It was a means of rest and recreation of the ideal kind, at an age when the present nervous hurry was unknown, so that the speed was not complained of, and the voyage was not ended with a sigh, while the captain was remembered as one of the great characters of history. With a good tandem team of four horses or mules and favorable weather, Philadelphia could be reached from Williamsport in half a week, for the packet traveled night and day, with fifteen-mile relays of teams and crews. These boats were about seven feet deep in the clear, fifteen feet wide and seventy-five feet long, a little shorter than the freighters. The deck was nearly flat, and in pleasant weather attracted most of the passengers, where music, speeches, stories or reading furnished entertainment, while the passing kaleidoscope of matchless scenery regaled the vision.

"However attractive the experience on deck might be, when the dinner bell rang there was a general stampede for the tables spread with viands, delicious beyond all possibility of modern chefs, with their doped food and ingenious mysteries.

Beautiful Scenery.

"It would be tedious, because it would be beyond the comprehensions of the present generation, to describe the quiet winding along under overlocking boughs, with occasional glimpses of the beautiful Susquehanna river or the pastoral scenes on fertile farms, or suddenly floating out upon the wide waters at Northumberland, Clark's ferry or elswhere, with the boat and its precious cargo hanging by a towline, attached to a tandem of horses, walking on a narrow shelf along the side of the bridge. When the wind blew the timid would grow pale at the thought of that little rope breaking, but, while there were hairbreadth escapes, disaster rarely came.

"Again, when the boat approached a lock where it was changed from one level to another, the helmsman at the tiller would sound a warning note from his horn so that the 'tender' could have everything in readiness and avoid delay. Then came the soft bumping against the sides of the lock chamber, the swish of the water as it rushed through the wickets, and, as the boat gently settled or rose in its level, the tale would be told of the man who one night stepped upon the white froth upon the water thinking it was a plank, and who was sucked down and miraculously turned endwise and passed through one of the valves and came up unhurt."

Steam and Flood Doomed Canals.

The destructive flood of 1889 put an end to slack-water navigation on the upper Susquehanna, and traffic on the Union canal was practically doomed when in 1855 the steam cars came into Williamsport and the packet boat became a memory. But there are many landmarks of this early traffic still retained in Williamsport.

The canal boats that ply these inland waterways today are comparatively uniform in size and equipment, and the engineering feats required in forming aqueducts leading the artificial waterway across streams that were considered marvels in the early days have been but little changed of late years. In the vicinity of Easton, Durham Furnace and points lower down the Lehigh and Delaware canal there are many of these aqueducts that have been renewed from time to time, but little altered since the early days of canal building.

Side by side with the quaint, the curious and the historic along the Pennsylvania canals are many modern industries, where the latest devices in limestone quarrying, modern electric light plants, splendid types of iron foundries and mile after mile of modern pipe lines stretch along the tow paths, carrying water from the hill sections to the mills in the lower districts. With the combination of ancient landmarks and modern industries there will be something of interest to be encountered all along the lines of the Pennsylvania canals during the present interest in re-establishing profitable industries along the inland waterways.

FIRE LOOKED SERIOUS.

Indiana Lighting Plant Had Loss of Only $800. However.

A fire that looked to be a serious one, but which resulted in a loss of less than $800 broke out in the Indiana Lighting company's gas works, on North Barr street, Saturday evening about 6 o'clock. The greatest danger from the fire lie in the adjoining gas tanks which might have exploded from the heat but through the quick actions of Supt. Danforth, all communication with these tanks was shut off.

The main force of the fire was spent in the new building being constructed facing the Nickel Plate tracks. The firemen spent an hour or so fighting the fire. The loss is covered by insurance.

MOST POPULAR MAN IN ISLAND IS GILBERT

Former Fort Wayne Lawyer's Immense Success as Vice Governor.

Logansport, Ind., Sept. 19.—"The most popular man in the Philippines is Vice Governor Gilbert," declares T. W. Stanley, of this city, connected with the quartermaster's department at Manila and now at home on a four months' vacation.

"Gilbert has a glad hand for everyone and a warm place in his heart for every Hoosier he meets," continued Mr. Stanley. The prospect is that he will be the next governor of the Philippines.

"We went to Manila," said Mr. Stanley, "expecting to stay three years, but we liked it so well that we stayed longer. In fact, most Americans when they go to Manila remain much longer than they expected to stay when they started. The island, in my opinion, is the best hemp country in the world, and tobacco, sugar, rice and cocoanuts are grown throughout the islands in abundance. The country will make great advancement in the sugar and hemp industry as soon as the question of labor can be settled. The hemp grower and the sugar planter are up against the labor proposition because the Filipino is not a good workman; he can easily make a poor living and that in many instances satisfies him. In the city the Filipino works well. He is willing to work where there is a crowd, but in isolated places in the country, where there are few people, he is satisfied to work just enough to eek out an existence. Hemp stripping is a hard job and hemp planters have tried the experiment of paying more wages, but they soon discovered that the higher the wages the fewer days the Filipino will work. He just wants enough to live on. The pay on the sugar and hemp plantations is from forty to fifty cents a day, and this is regarded as good wages for the average Filipino of the lower class.

Americans Can Not Compete.

"Common labor is not performed by Americans in the Philippines. The American laborer can not compete with the oriental laborer who works for such low wages. The most desirable laborers in the orient are the Chinese, but because of the exclusion laws there are but few Chinese there. The better class of Filipino patterns after the Spaniard in his manner of living—he lives as nearly like a Spaniard as he can, and the Spaniard lives well. The ordinaray Filipino is perfectly satisfied with the form of government given them by the Americans. The average Filipino likes display. He is fond of marching and joining in parades and a uniform is his delight. The love of these things makes him susceptible to persuasion and he will follow an agitator as long as he can walk. Labor troubles and strikes are brought on by these agitators, who work on the vanity of the Filipinos, particularly among the stevedores and those employed by the shipping interests, the laborers getting the glory of marching in parades and the agitator getting the financial returns. We have convicted one agitator for threatening to do damage to shipping interests and we have another under indictment for the same thing."

"What of the future of the Philippines?" Mr. Stanley was asked.

Not Fit to Govern Himself.

"All of the best interests of the Filipino lie in the control that the American government can exercise over him. The general sentiment in the island is, I have found it, is that independence, as the Filipino expects to get it, is a long ways in the distance, if it ever comes. The Filipino is not fit to govern himself because as soon as he would take charge the agitators would get busy and every locality would have a revolution against the existing government. The only thing that keeps the agitators from starting revolutions now is the strong restraining hand of the American government, and once that restraint is removed the islands would be a volcano in continual eruption. Of course, you understand the Filipinos have local self-government now."

"What do you think of Manila as a city for Americans to live in?" Mr. Stanley was asked.

"Manila is a delightful city to live in, but I don't think that any real American would like to live in the Philippines all his life. But if he did not desire ever to return to the states, Manila would be the place for him to live. The climate is healthful, the temperature ranging from 60 to 90 degrees, but when the temperature reaches 90 degrees the humidity is so great that the people notice the heat more than they do in the United States. The city is modern, has a good street railway system, electric lights and has just finished a complete sewer system at a cost of $2,000,000. Its water supply is good, coming from a river thirty-five miles away. Our streets are swept every day and are so clean that the streets of the American cities I see now really seem filthy to me. Of course we have contagious and infectious diseases, but they are to be found in every part of the states as well as in the Philippines, but we suffer more from the reports of deadly diseases because they are exaggerated almost out of proportion by the time the information gets across the sea to the home folk, and to some extent these reports keeps Americans away. Tourists always leave the city with a better impression of it than they had when they came."

AN AUTOMOBILE KILLING IN NEW YORK.

CORONER'S JURY AT SCENE OF ACCIDENT. (+) EDWARD T. ROSENHEIMER.
WALTER S. HOUGH
MILTON FLEISHER, THE CHAUFFEUR.
JOHN DEANS
MRS. E. T. ROSENHEIMER

New York, Sept. 19.—Edward T. Rosenheimer, a popular young millionaire manufacturer, whose automobile ran over and killed Miss Grace Hough, a pretty young girl, on Aug. 18, has been held without bail by the grand jury on a charge of criminal negligence. His chauffeur, Milton Fleisher, was also held in $10,000 bail. The case has attracted considerable attention owing to the prominence of Mr. Rosenheimer, and its trial will no doubt be watched with interest. John Deans was a most damaging witness against the defendant. Among the daily visitors during the trial are Walter S. Hough, father of the dead girl, and Mrs. E. T. Rosenheimer, wife of the accused.

STOPS AT EVERY CROSSING.

Wabash Council Compels Traction Company to Halt Cars Often.

Wabash, Ind., Sept. 19.—The Wabash city council has passed the most drastic protective ordinance of any city in Indiana, it is thought. This will be effective after publication according to law. The ordinance requires every interurban car passing through Wabash to make a full stop at every crossing, whether there are passengers to enter or leave the car or not. This is to make the car absolutely under control. A stop at every crossing will delay the cars in the runs through the city, but will eliminate absolutely every grade crossing accident. The council also passed an ordinance requiring the Wabash railroad to maintain watchmen at every street crossing, instead of at half of the crossings, as formerly. The Big Four does not run through the residence portion of the city, so escapes. There have been several crossing fatalities and accidents, and this caused the present action.

HOSPITAL RECEIPTS SHORT.

Chief Surgeon H. W. Moorehouse, of the Wabash, has issued his annual report of the receipts and expenditures of the Wabash hospital and dispensories for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910. The expenditures, according to his report, exceeded the receipts by nearly $5,000. The exact figures are as follows:

Excess of receipts over expenditures from June 1, 1884, to June 30, 1909, were $51,131.50, leaving the balance excess receipts over the expenditures from June 1, 1884, to June 30, 1910, $46,335.14.

The total receipts were $79,446.31, total expenditures $84,242.67; excess of expenditures over receipts, $4,796.36.

There were 53,446 cases treated during the year. There were 46,128 medical cases, 7,318 surgical cases, 1,495 cases in hospitals and 51,951 outside of hospitals. The number of prescriptions filled for patients in hospitals was 7,203, and prescriptions for patients outside of hospitals 78,944.

There were twenty-two deaths due to medical causes, and eleven deaths due to surgical causes, leaving a total of thirty-three deaths for the year.

The number of persons receiving treatment in the Peru hospital was 322. Out of these 162 were medical cases and 160 surgical cases. The number of cases treated outside of the Peru hospital, that is to say, were given attention by the local hospital physicians, was 4,555. Outside of this number 4,164 were medical cases and 391 surgical.

There are three hospitals, and the surgeons in charge are Dr. E. H. Griswold, Peru; Dr. M. P. Parris, Decatur, and Dr. C. B. Clapp, Moberly. Besides these surgeons there are several others located in the larger cities on the Wabash lines. Dr. C. F. Kaadt is the company's surgeon in Fort Wayne.

TRUCKBUILDER RESIGNS.

M. O. Brown, a truckbuilder, resigned his position at the Pennsylvania tank shop this morning. He has found better employment elsewhere. Mr. Brown worked two years at the shops.

RETURNED FROM CONVENTION.

George E. Graham, general foreman of the paint department of the Pennsylvania shops, has returned from St. Louis, where he attended the annual convention last week of the Master Painters' association. The meeting was one of the best held by the association.

ENGINEER AT SCHOOL HOUSE.

Charles A. Smith, for a year or two a machinists' helper at the Wabash shops, resigned Saturday night and this morning took a position as engineer in one of the city school buildings. Mr. Smith worked for the Wabash over twenty-five years and was once an engineer on the road.

RETIRES FROM THE RAILROAD.

Charles W. Harvout has retired from the dining car service of the Nickel Plate and will devote his entire time to the Transfer restaurant, in which he became interested several weeks ago. Mr. Harvout was on the Nickel Plate a number of years.

TO NEPHEW'S WEDDING.

Alex. Kinnaird, scale inspector for the Pennsylvania company, and his family will leave tomorrow for Lake Geneva, Wis., where they will attend the wedding of their nephew, Robert N. Kinnaird, formerly of this city, which takes place next Wednesday.

ON AN EASTERN TRIP.

Engineers Emil Blanchard and M. G. Walker, with their wives, will leave tomorrow on a two weeks' tour of the east. They will visit Washington, Philadelphia, New York, Baltimore and other cities and get all of the pleasure it is possible to crowd into the limited time allotted for the trip.

PAY DAY AT 'LIGHTS.

Tomorrow is the semi-annual pay day at the Fort Wayne Electric works. Notwithstanding the fact that there was a holiday in the period covered by the pay rolls this time, the amount will be as great as at any previous time during the year, on account of the steady increase in force.

MESSENGER TRANSFERRED.

William Kiep has been transferred from Agent E. H. Kirkland's office, in the freight department, to the position vacated by August Kuhlbach, who was recently promoted to a clerical position in the machine shop office of the Pennsylvania. The change is a promotion for the young man.

NEW BUTTONS ARE PRETTY.

The new buttons for the Electro-Technic club arrived Saturday night and are being distributed among the members today. The buttons are about three-quarters of an inch in diameter, have silver backs with blue enamel faces, surrounded by a band of gold. Inlaid in the center of the buttons are the monograms "E. T. C." in gold. There are 500 buttons, enough for present use and one for each of the members to be taken in during the fall and winter months.

PLASTERERS' NEW OFFICERS.

The following is the result of the semi-annual election held by the Plasterers' union:

President—Paul Schmalta.
Vice President—Fred Ralsbottom.
Secretary—Hiram Drummings.
Treasurer—Frank Majdes.
Trustees—L. J. Michaels, Len Brockerman, Joseph Burns.
Sergeant-at-Arms—Frank Creager.

WILL VISIT OLD HOME.

Tomorrow John E. Eylenburg, telegraph operator at the Wabash master mechanic's office, will commence a two weeks' vacation, which he will spend with relatives and friends in New York state, his old home. He will be accompanied by his daughter, Miss Florence Eylenburg. Edison Dale, who has been employed in the shops for awhile, will work at the keys during the absence of Mr. Eylenburg.

NEARLY 300 TO ROME CITY.

Although the early Sunday morning train on the Grand Rapids and Indiana road was taken out of service last week and the present Sunday schedule allows the fishermen only about eight hours at the lake, travel to Rome City was quite heavy, there being 255 tickets sold. This was a better business than the officials expected and it demonstrates the popularity of Rome City with the fishermen of Fort Wayne.

BACK FROM VACATION TRIP.

R. W. Evans, assistant foreman at the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop, resumed work this morning, after an absence of ten days. He took a vacation trip, which included a short stop in Detroit, Mt. Clements, Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Altoona and Pittsburg. The latter city was once Mr. Evans' home. T. R. Mueller, who was on a vacation, and A. P. Mueller, who was sick a few days, also resumed work at the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop this morning.

FIRST GAME OF SERIES.

The first double games of the series of tennis games to be played this fall by the Tennis league composed of employes of the Fort Wayne Electric works took place last Saturday afternoon, with the following results: Harvey Crane and F. E. Mills defeated Morgenthaler and Cooper; Carter and Hunter defeated Mussbaum and Hazelton, and Duryee and J. B. Mills, the latter substituting for Leonard, defeated Griffith and Gewhn. The only single contest Saturday was between Hunter and Hazelton and it resulted in victory for Mr. Hunter.

IN OLD QUARTERS SOON.

If present progress in track elevation work at Calhoun street is maintained, Agent W. H. Shorey and Baggagemaster Louis Lussenhop, of the Wabash, will be selling tickets and juggling trunks at the old stand within a month. As planned now, it is proposed to fit up the old Wabash depot and move into it about October 18. The company is not going to make extensive repairs on the old building, as a new station is under consideration with fair prospects of being built.

WILL BRING IN TWO CROWDS.

Bad weather is the only thing that will prevent the largest excursion party ever brought into Fort Wayne to attend a county fair next Wednesday. Frank P. Parnin, traveling passenger agent of the Nickel Plate, has been engaged for weeks in working up the excursion and is assured that it will be an immense affair, providing, of course, the weather is not stormy or very threatening at the hour of departure from the western terminals in the excursion territory. There will be two trains, one starting from Hammond and the other from Claypool.

SHOP AND RAIL NOTES.

J. L. Bobay, a painter at the Pennsylvania shops, is off duty on account of his baby being quite sick.

John Eyer, a marker at the shipping room of the Fort Wayne Electric works, has returned to duty after a two weeks' vacation.

Al Buchheit resumed his place at the desk in the shop office at the Fort Wayne Electric works this morning. He was away on a vacation last week.

The Wabash sold ninety-five tickets to Toledo and forty-one to Detroit yesterday, which was considered a good business.

Harry W. Stirk, bookkeeper at the Bass works, is taking a vacation and has gone to Chicago to spend a part of it.

O. C. Wright, electrical engineer for the Pennsylvania, has returned from Indianapolis, where he spent a week on business for the company.

Boilermaker John Krouse, of the Bass shops, has returned from Van Wert, Ohio, where he was engaged two or three days in making repairs to a boiler plant.

John Bechtol, a recent graduate of the Business college, has taken the position of clerk to George Trease, general foreman at the Wabash freight house.

A. L. Hadley, head of the electrical department of the Fort Wayne Electric works, has returned from Madison, Wis., where he spent last week in looking after business for the company.

F. J. Rapp, the electrical student, who had a hand burned at the Fort Wayne Electric works several days ago, was able to resume work this morning.

J. J. Cochoit resumed work in the airbrake room at the Pennsylvania shops this morning. He was off three or four days on account of an accident.

E. Forest Thomson resumed his duties in the Wabash master mechanic's office this morning, having concluded a vacation which he spent with relatives at Logansport and elsewhere.

John Allen, assistant foreman of the passenger car department of the Pennsylvania shops, but for the past year engaged in special work of a clerical character has recovered from a severe illness.

The Carpenters and Joiners anticipate a considerable boom the coming winter. New members have been coming in for several weeks and the union today is stronger than it was at any previous period of the past six years.

Next Wednesday the national guard companies of the southern part of Michigan will pass through the city over the Lake Shore road and the Lake Erie and Western en route to Indianapolis. There will be two trains, consisting of nine coaches and six baggage cars.

After a service in the maintenance of way department of the Baltimore and Ohio road thirty-six years, T. R. Maroney has retired on account of failing health. He began work as a section hand and reached the position of road supervisor several years ago. He is succeeded in that office by J. P. Dell, of Hicksville.

Machinist E. S. White, who was afflicted with stomach trouble for a month, and Machinist Frank Conners, who was kept from work several weeks by an affection of the eyes, were able to resume their duties in the Pennsylvania erecting shop this morning. First Auction Sale

Of Lots in Fort Wayne.

For the first time in the city of Fort Wayne, a large number of lots were placed upon the market at auction, when Peddicord & Sigrist, a real estate firm of this city, disposed of approximately $15,000.00 worth of property by that method, in Lakeside Park Addition, Saturday afternoon. The crowd was somewhat late in arriving on the ground and the sale was not begun as early as was expected, but before finished it was demonstrated that the auction method of disposing of lots is a successful one and will undoubtedly become prominent in the future for disposing of real estate, being more rapid than the old method, as well as more economical to both the buyer and the seller. The firm will undoubtedly put another sale on in the near future with a view to disposing of the lots still unsold, as the time was too short to get around to all they had to offer the public.

RILEY NEBRO LOOKS FOR A ROOMING HOUSE

Had Jag for Himself and Wine for Horse—City Court.

Riley Nebro, armed with a Huntington dry territory jag accumulated on his own behalf, and a bottle of sherry wine for a trotter at the fair grounds, to which he is chief valet, knocked at most of the doors in West Berry street yesterday in search of a rooming house. He wanted a room for himself. He was content to let the horse remain at the driving park.

He lost his bearings, if he ever had them, and was gathered into the arms of a big policeman and this morning in the city court he paid the city $11 and hiked out to see how his charge got along without its [illegible] during his enforced absence. Nebro said it is no trouble to get drinks at the Huntington drug stores.

Didn't Want to Chance It.

Ben Osborn, charged with peddling liquor on Sunday, did not want to take a chance with Judge J. Frank Munyovan and when his case was called he presented an affidavit under which he asked a change of venue. This was granted and his case was continued until tomorrow morning.

The Other Cases.

Dr. Gaylord Leslie brought in five tramps who were camping on the Bass farm yesterday, in an effort to break up the practice. Judge Munyovan fined all of them and told them when they got out to spread the news among the gentry that the hobo camp west of the city has been abolished and that fifteen days is waiting for the crowd that opens it up again.

Henry Manier, who broke into the safe at the Fry warehouse, was charged with malicious trespass and fined $5 and costs and given sixty days. He was let go under a suspension. Albert Kramer, who was with him, was held until Saturday and will be turned over to the Plainfield authorities.

The cases of grand larceny against Frank and Bertha Spano were dismissed by the state.

The charge of assault and battery with intent to kill against Nick Palku, who cut Zach Holsen, was changed to plain assault and battery and the case continued until tomorrow.

Frank and Emma Jones, arrested for begging, told a hard luck story and were ordered out of town. He said he had been ill and the woman had injured her hand and they wanted to reach relatives at Chicago.

William Jones, Booth Rollison, Fred Oakley, James Kelly, Dan Donahue, Tom Delan and Ben Fry, plain drunks, were let go.

Walter Scott, who insulted women on West Berry street Saturday while he was drunk, got $5 and costs and Ray Vaughn and Thomas Ryan got $1 and costs each.

GASOLINE TO REPLACE HORSES ON NEW YORK'S FIRE ENGINES.

Now Experimenting With New Motive Power, But to Keep Steam for Pumping—Savannah Fire Chief Compliments Department—Leads the World in Efficiency in Fire Fighting, Declares Thomas Ballantyne.

New York, Sept. 19.—Automobile fire engines are being constructed for New York. This means that gasolene motive power is being substituted for horse power, not that steam has been abandoned for the pumping machinery. It took an out of town fire chief to reveal this. He is Chief Thomas Ballantyne, of the Savannah, Ga., fire department, who has been in New York for the past week inspecting the department and getting as many hints from the every day working of the department as he did at the international convention of fire chiefs recently held at Syracuse.

Chief Ballantyne is a massive, broad shouldered and muscular man, with a strong face, in the center of which a red mustache gleams like an incipient conflagration. He is an enthusiastic believer in the future of the automobile as the solution of quickly transporting fire apparatus to the fire, but has not been converted to the belief of gasolene as equalling steam power for pumping water.

"Automobiles are all right for hose wagons, combination hose and chemical wagons or hook and ladder trucks," he asserted, "but I do not think they have perfected the gasolene engine to the practical stage yet. I think the best scheme so far thought out is that used by New York, which is experimenting with an arrangement for substituting automobile propelling power for the horses. In this manner it will not be necessary to throw a lot of steam engines on the junk heap while experimenting with gasolene pumps."

Working on this information, it was learned that Fire Commissioner Waldo has been experimenting quietly with the automobile steam fire engine. Chief Croker has been at the convention and has seen the gasolene pumped engine, but has not expressed himself in favor of it. New York has been promised a number of automobile hose wagons for the high pressure zone, where no engines are needed, but the automobile propelled steam engine will be a novelty in this city's streets.

"I am having an automobile combination wagon built for the central district of Savannah," said Chief Ballantyne. "It is a hose wagon and chemical engine combined and will respond to most of the alarms in the city, with a horse drawn apparatus covering for it while it is out of the station. I am a firm believer in the automobile as far as trucks and hose wagons go. Columbus, Ohio, has very successfully tried the automobile drawn hook and ladder truck, making twenty-two miles an hour, with heavy apparatus and an eighty-five foot ladder, which, you will agree, is faster than horses make it.

"With the combination of an automobile's speed and a chemical engine's ability to check a dangerous fire at little expense to the premises I think the art of fighting fires cheaply is advancing. Chemical engines have checked many a dangerous blaze which would have become big losses. I had an experience in Savannah of holding down with chemicals a blaze which did only $85 damage when it might have done $50,000 damage in smoke and water if just water pressure had been used. It was in a dry goods store.

THOMAS BALLENTYNE.

"Of course, New York is the big dealer in the fire fighting world, with Chicago as its only rival. The New York chief gets the biggest salary any fire chief gets in the country, or the world, and the department is bigger and has more work than anywhere else. Naturally fire chiefs look up to it everywhere.

"But your fire alarm system here is not the most up to date. I fact, it is rapidly becoming antiquated. The most modern system I know of, and I have it from the Gamwell alarm people, who have specialized in that for years, is to be found in Newark, N. J. I inspected it and it certainly is speedy. It is direct and works in three ways, so that if one fails there will be two other records to get it right. Of course, I do not know whether that could be installed in such a big city as New York, where it is now necessary to relay the alarms in divisions. Of course it would be impossible to have all the engine houses here on one circuit, with the boxes coming in all the time, as they do here. There is considerable room for improvement in the alarm line all over the country.

"Yes, I have taken a ride with Chief Croker when he was responding to an alarm. He certainly goes faster than any man outside a race track, but why shouldn't he? The police here cover him all the way when they hear that siren moaning. They are certainly quick about clearing a way for him. It's different in a smaller town, where some boneheaded street car motorman is liable to stop on the crossing just as the chief is coming along as fast as he can send his horse. I know because I have had experience. When I saw there was no chance to dodge I knocked the driver out of the rig and tried to send the horse into the street car. But he skated across the track and left me to take it. I landed on my face."

Marooned American Hears From Home and Won't Come Back.

As the captain of the relief ship stepped ashore on the desert isle the man who had been marooned there for a quarter of a century came forward, trembling with emotion. Although his voice seemed strange, he could still speak the language.

"Has anything happened since I have been away from home?" he asked discordantly.

"Well, just a few things."

"Harrison still president?"

"Oh, my, no! Cleveland and McKinley and Roosevelt and Taft."

"Um! Strange to me. Never heard of the last two. Tariff still on?"

"Same old tariff—only a little more of it."

"Any new jinks in the discovery line?"

"Phonograph—reproduces any sound you like. Wireless telegraphy—communicates through air. Seedless apples. Aeroplanes—fly like birds."

"You don't say! Anything doing in politics?"

"Governor Hughes of New York has put a stop to betting on horse races, but Wall street is still going."

"Same old street, eh? Any new styles?"

"You'd think so if you could see the women."

"By the way, how are all the girls?"

"Trying to get the vote."

"You don't tell me! Well, well! How are prices?"

"About double what they were. Beefsteak 38 cents a pound."

"I used to be somewhat of a reader," the marooned man said. "Is there anything new in philosophy?"

"Dear me, yes! It has been put on an entirely new basis by Professor James. Pragmatism now rules."

"And the drama?"

"Has been regenerated by a syndicate."

"Same old legs?"

"About the same."

"Any new words?"

"Several—'uplift,' 'strenuous,' 'muckraker' and a number of others."

"Any wars?"

"A few. Russia and Japan and, oh, yes—England and the Boers. Then we own the Philippines now—got 'em away from Spain. But come along. The weather looks threatening. You must get aboard."

The marooned man shook his head.

"I'm not going back with you," he said.

"Not going back? Why not?"

"Well, captain, it's this way: I've lived here for twenty-five years, and I've got used to this humdrum life. It suits me now fairly well. I might stand all the changes you have told me of if I could have 'em as gradually as you have, but to take 'em all at once—in one dose—why, it would kill me!"—Life.

The station at Oden, on the Grand Rapids and Indiana road, has been closed for the season.

The contract for laying a new floor in St. Mary's Catholic church was awarded to John H. Pranger.

The Co-operative Grain and Seed Association of Fort Wayne has been incorporated under the state law at Indianapolis.

The famous equestriennes, Madam Marantette and Miss Myrtle Peck, are at the Fort Wayne fair today with their Kentucky thoroughbreds.

Of the tonnage carried over the Wabash road for the year ending June 30, 1885, 32 per cent. was flour and grain and 20.7 per cent. was coal.

G. E. Bursley, the wholesale grocer, went to Providence, R. I., today and will return with his family, who have been spending the summer there.

F. M. Dozier, traveling auditor of the Wabash road, is in the city making a formal transfer of the ticket office to the newly appointed agent at this point, J. M. McConnell.

C. B. Layland, corner of McCulloch and Hayden streets, advertises that two stray sheep have come to his residence, and the owner can have the same by coming forward, proving property and paying charges.

Last night at the witching hour Captain Diehl and a posse of police raided the gaming room over the Occidental and captured thirteen energetic gentlemen who were vainly endeavoring to skin each other over the green cloth.

The most daring burglary recorded here in years was committed last night between 9 and 10 o'clock, when the safe in Keil Bros.' book store was cracked and the robbers got away with some $600 in cash. Louis Wolf's fur rooms were also robbed.

Warsaw Times: Judge Lowry, of Fort Wayne, democratic member of congress from that district, was in the city yesterday. The judge has succeeded in ousting nearly every republican postmaster in his district, and so far as he is concerned has got his portion of the Augean stable cleaned, we presume he thinks.

Rheumatic Poison

Rheuma Drives It From the System and Cures Rheumatism.

Ever since Meyer Bros. Co. secured the privilege of handling Rheuma in Fort Wayne, the sales have been very large.

This is due to the fact that Rheuma really does cure Rheumatism, and that it is guaranteed to cure Rheumatism or money back.

It's a quick acting remedy, too. You don't have to wait a long while for results, for Rheuma starts at once to act on the kidneys, liver, bowels, and blood, and before 24 hours the poisonous Uric Acid, which causes Rheumatism, has begun to pass out of the body through the regular channels.

One 50 cent bottle will prove to any Rheumatic sufferer that Rheuma surely will cure Rheumatism.

For quickest relief from acute indigestion, try English Marhue, 25 cents, at Meyer Bros. Co. Mailed by Rheuma Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Man and the rat go everywhere and eat everything. They are the two creatures that dwell in houses and travel in ships. Each drives its other rivals to the wall, but neither, except locally and for brief periods, has ever come near to exterminating the other. The use of cement is greatly facilitating the fight going on against the rats.

BLOOD TROUBLES

CONSTITUTIONAL INFECTION

Constitutional Blood Poison is the most insidious of all diseases. It begins in an insignificant manner, usually the appearance of a tiny sore being the only outward evidence of its presence. But down in the blood the treacherous infection is at work, and in a short time its chain of symptoms begin to crop out. The mouth and throat ulcerate, skin eruptions break out, sores and ulcers appear on the body, the glands in the groin swell, and sometimes the hair comes out. Mineral medicines cannot cure Constitutional Blood Poison; they only shut the disease up in the system to smoulder and await an opportunity of breaking out afresh. The only possible way to cure the disease is to REMOVE the germs from the blood. S. S. S. goes into the blood, and while removing the infection makes the blood pure, fresh and healthy. This causes a general upbuilding of the entire system, and when S. S. S. has made a cure there is no return of the hideous symptoms. S. S. S. is made entirely of vegetable matter, containing not the least particle of mineral in any form. It is a perfectly safe medicine and a certain cure for blood poison. We have a Home treatment book which we will be glad to send free to all who write and request it, also any medical advice without charge.

WINS A RACE WITH DEATH THROUGH RAPIDS

Larsen Goes from Niagara Falls Over Rapids and Whirlpool.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Sept. 19.—A crowd which lined the cliffs on both sides of the river from Niagara Falls to Lewiston yesterday saw Captain Klaus Larsen, of Cleveland, ride into the Whirlpool rapids in his little motor boat, the Ferro, leap, boat and all, twenty feet in the air from the crest of the great wave to the whirlpool itself, and finally, after a hair-raising struggle of forty-five minutes, during which the engine of his tiny craft broke down, emerge from the maniacal waters bruised, battered and half-drowned, but with his nerve so little shaken that his first words to those who had rushed to his rescue were: "Yes, I did it, and I can do it again."

Battle Against Death.

Up to the time that his engine failed him he sailed standing up. After that the struggle was a breathless battle of life and death with the odds greatly against the helpless boat, and only the indomitable courage of the sailor dipping the balance of fate in his favor.

When he was dragged from the water a mile and a half above Lewiston his clothes were drenched and torn, his lefe leg badly jammed and his face and hands cut and bruised, while his boat was racked from stem to stern and was leaking badly. Larsen, however, was just as cool as when he started. "It was worse than I thought it was going to be," he said, "but I beat it."

The Cleveland captain had intended starting at 2:30 in the afternoon, but interference on the part of the American authorities, who insisted on an inspection of the Ferro, and the breaking down of his engine while he was exhibiting the vessel, caused a delay of more than two hours.

Starts at Top Speed.

It was 4:45 when the Ferro had been patched up and Larsen put off from Maid of the Mist dock. The little boat immediately swung under the cantilever bridge, running at top speed, and was caught in the swift drift where the river begins its rush down to the whirlpool.

Larsen held steadily in the middle of the stream, although the water leaping about him in giant waves sometimes hid him entirely from view for minutes at a time.

Then began the series of huge billows which culminate in the great wave above the whirlpool. With Larsen still standing the boat made the first wave gallantly, but at the second it dipped and seemed for a moment to have been swallowed completely.

Disentangling itself slowly, the Ferro came out of the water and leaped ahead in a series of mighty bounds until it reached the great wave itself. Gathering the boat into its arms the great wave lifted it clear and flung it, passenger and all, twenty feet in the air and down in a cloud of spray to the less turbulent stream below.

Engine Fails to Work.

Into the whirlpool the Ferro swept and circled at once. Then, heading for the shore, Larsen rushed out of the pool and into the Devil's Hole rapids. And here, with the battle almost won, a tragedy happened. The Ferro's engine "died" completely. Before Larsen could move a finger the boat swung completely around and was tumbling stern foremost through the towering waves. Once it almost capsized.

Just above the lower reach of Devil's Hole rapids the Ferro went fast between the rocks, forty feet out from the American shore. Larsen worked like a maniac five minutes before he freed it. A little later it drifted into an eddy.

Roy Rockwell, a riverman, waded out into the water as far as he dared and caught a rope from Larsen. Then he drew the sailor ashore. The boat was picked up at Lewiston.

"I'm going to do it again with another boat," said Larsen.

Peter Nissen, of Chicago, in 1900, and C. A. Percy, 1887 and 1901, went through the rapids safely in barrels. No one else has ever passed through the rapids and lived.

Frighten Horses and Cause Phaeton to Go Down Embankment.

Decatur, Ill., Sept. 19.—Caught in an abrupt angle of a country road, Frank Abel was almost instantly killed yesterday and Attorney John Lee badly injured by being overturned in a phaeton down an embankment. Seven hilarious joy riders in a big touring car bore down on them at a speed of fifty miles an hour, frightening their horse. The automobile did not stop to investigate. Lee was unconscious for ten hours.

WITHOUT SECURITY HE GETS THOUSANDS FROM NEW YORK BANKS.

ADOLPH ROTHBARTH.

New York, Sept. 19.—Admitting that his ambition to become a millionaire by stock speculation in Wall street had led him into a maelstrom of trouble, from which he could see no escape, and that the was guilty of obtaining large loans from banks by gross misrepresentation of his assets, so that he might continue his pursuit of the fortune he craved, Adolph Rothbarth, hop importer, of No. 25 Whitehall street, pleaded guilty Thursday to a specific charge of obtaining $10,000 from the Mercantile National bank on false pretenses and was sent to the Tombs in default of $20,000 bail.

"I am guilty," he said, "and I hope I get the limit. It was so easy to get the money that the habit grew on me."

According to his own admissions to the police and the lawyers in the case, there were hundreds of thousands of dollars involved in the various transactions of Rothbarth with the banks, and at one time he obtained $130,000 from one bank when his assets were not more than $20,000. This money he paid back to keep his credit good, and it was only when he attempted to establish a new line of credit at the same financial institution that he met his downfall.

73 MORE CHINESE 'INDEMNITY' STUDENTS HERE.

"CLASS OF 1910"—9 CHINESE STUDENTS IN AMERICA FOR EDUCATION

San Francisco, Sept. 19.—Seventy-three young Chinese, the second party of "indemnity" students, arrived here today on board the Pacific mail steamship China. They are on their way to Springfield, Mass., from which point they will be distributed among the colleges and universities of the United States. Nearly all the students will specialize in technical subjects and each will be sent to the institution best equipped for his specialty.

These young Chinese are the pick of the youth of the Flowery Kingdom, and a ten minutes' cat with any of them is calculated to furnish convincing testimony that their big country is wide awake. They are a healthy, happy crowd, and the big round spectacles that most of them wear lend an aspect of almost uncanny wisdom. The examination that they had to pass in Pekin was a stiff one, and the seventy-three who arrived here are the survivors of ten times that number who entered the contest.

Among the students are four members of the class of 1912, University of California. They started to get their higher education at their own expense. After two years at Berkeley they decided to transfer the burden to the indemnity fund. They returned to China a few months ago, took the examination, passed, and for the rest of their courses the imperial treasury will foot the bills from the remitted "boxer" indemnity funds. The members of this thrifty quartet are Chow Wai Chai, Chang Pao Hua, Wu Chao Tao and Wong Yo Cheng.

Most of the seventy-three students are wearing European dress for the first time, and very uncomfortable some of them looked. After passing the final examination they were all taken to the barber's, who gave them each a hair cut, European style, which included the removal of the queue. They then laid off their silken robes and donned the raiment of western civilization.

The students are in charge of Hu Teng Fu, a graduate of Cornell, and of Yen Yo Chung. They were met here by C. H. Robertson, of the Young Men's Christian association in China. Before they leave San Francisco Yung Kwai, secretary of the Chinese legation at Washington, will be here to look them over. Yung Kwai will not go east with them, but will remain here to greet Prince Tsai-Hsun, who is coming on board the Manchuria.

The students will leave for Springfield next Tuesday by special train. They will be divided up among these institutions: California, Yale, Harvard, Cornell, Columbia, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Johns Hopkins, Colorado, Wisconsin, Michigan, Worcester and Illinois.

After graduation they will return to China and serve the Chinese government for five years. They will be paid for this work, and at the expiration of the five years each will be at liberty to strike out for himself.

PERSISTENCE THE PRICE OF PHYSICAL IMPROVEMENT.

I am strongly inclined to preach a sermon on the necessity of persistence to all women who wish to do anything to change their personal appearance. It won't do the least good to work like mad for a week to reduce the flesh and then, because one is not sylph-like at the moment, to think nothing has been gained and stop the exercises. Neither will good be accomplished if the effort is spasmodic—made for a few days and then omitted for a few days. Whatever gain one has made is lost in the vacation, and each time is merely beginning over again. It must be maintained day after day and every day, no matter whether it is exercise, diet or the use of cosmetics.

A woman will understand this easily if she realizes that such cosmetics as would act quickly must necessarily be strong. When this is the case there is a lively probability that they may be injurious. But one which acts slowly is, of course, gentle, and if it is constantly and regularly applied, it will accomplish its purpose many times, when, without this regularity, it will be called "no good."

Trying to lose weight is one of the most discouraging tasks that a woman can set herself, but it is equally true that, if she is persistent about it, nine out of ten will succeed, and do so without loss of strength. But she must be as unfailing, daily, in the diet and work laid out for her as a minute hand is in going around the face of a clock, and the simile is not badly chosen. While she will see no change in herself from day to day, any more than she sees the hour hand move, if she is weighed at the end of a week there will be recorded a falling off of measurement, just as the hour traveled by the clock is shown at the end of that time.

Very frequently my correspondents ask for a face bleach or hair tonic, or something similar that "will act quickly." I disapprove so strongly of such agents that I rarely give them. To lose flesh quickly is to lose strength quickly, and that is highly disastrous. Certainly I do not care to suggest it. The same is true of external applications, and as I want to aid my readers, and not to make them worse, I can only tell them to be willing to make haste slowly and, when they undertake to make an improvement in their looks, to be persistent and regular in the effort.

COMPLETES HIS ONE HUNDREDTH OCEAN VOYAGE AS A CAPTAIN.

Heinrich Berthold Knuth, Commander of the Amerika, Has Followed the Sea for Many Years—Has Number of Decorations for Rescues.

New York, Sept. 19.—Captain Heinrich Berthold Knuts, commander of the Amerika, of the Hamburg-American line, came into port yesterday, making his one hundredth trip as captain. One of the most popular commanders in the trans-Atlantic service, Captain Knuth began his voyages to New York as a master in command of the Polynesia, of the Carr line, in 1883. Before that, beginning when fifteen years old, he had followed the sea for the most part in sailing ships, making voyages from Hamburg to the far east, to New York and San Francisco.

Born December 25, 1852, in a suburb of Hamburg, Captain Knuth in all of his many years on the sea has met with no serious accident on board any of the vessels of which he has been an officer. The Carr line was absorbed by the Hamburg-American line in 1887 and since that time Captain Knuth has commanded successively the Saxonia, the India, the Thuringia, the Escania, the Calabria, the Alesia, the Adria, the Armenia, the Bolgalia, the Alexandria, the Belgravia, the Palatia, the Pennsylvania, and on March 1, 1907, assumed his present command.

CAPT. HEINRICH BERTOLD KNUTH.

For his services in the boxer war in China Captain Knuth has the Crown Order of Prussia of the fourth class, and he wears the Chinese and African war medals bestowed by the fatherland. While in command of the Alesia Captain Knuth rescued the captain and ten men of the Kitty, a British bark, wrecked in a typhoon in the China sea in August, 1889, picking them up from floating wreckage and one boat. For this the British government presented him with a pair of binoculars suitably inscribed, the German Life Saving society a silver medal and the Chinese mandarin of the district a silk Chinese standard.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury, as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

DON'T SNEER AT SENTIMENT.

That which the great body of men feel and desire, that is the thing which is going to be done sooner or later. Sentiment is not a thing to be sneered at. It is to be regulated and limited to its proper sphere. We must distinguish between true and false sympathy and sentiment. We must believe that it is a social function to widen sympathy. I am becoming more and more charitable to the unscientific idealists who interest themselves in these subjects; more and more patient toward the negative critics of society, because all of these bring to the knowledge of the public the abuses that must be corrected, constantly making the public conscience more sensitive. People cannot sympathize with things which they have not touched. It is marvelous to see how the attitude changes when one is brought into close personal touch with misery. This is the service that is done by friendly visiting, by the social settlements, by all things that enlist the sympathy of a larger and larger number of persons. It is only after we know what we want that there is any wish to embody these things in legislation; or any need of th sociologic expert to pronounce on these projects. Before we can win the things that will improve society we must win the great body of the people to desire these things.—Prof. Frank A. Fetter, in The Survey.

Alumino Smokeless Oil Heaters

JUST THE THING YOU NEED FOR THESE CHILLY NIGHTS AND MORNINGS.

Why be uncomfortable in your home or office at this time of the year, when you can have heat and comfort for so small a cost?

As a matter of economy, one of these heaters will pay for itself in a very short time, as it will save you starting your stove or furnace until the real cold weather sets in.

We do not hesitate to say that these heaters are the best on the market, because they will give more heat for the amount of oil consumed than any other, and in addition, they have several distinct points of superiority over all others. We would take great pleasure in showing them up to you and explaining their different points of merit.

We Are Glad to Recommend Root Juice

BECAUSE ITS GREAT MERIT IS BEYOND QUESTION.

We are very glad to recommend Root Juice to the people of this locality, as we personally know of many astonishing cures it has made. The great merit of the remedy is beyond question. Bradley Bros., the druggists, who have the agency at this point, said that they never sold a medicine that gave such general satisfaction, and that dozens of local residents gladly give testimonials, unsolicited. Many of our oldest and most respected citizens are praising Root Juice, because, after a short use of it, their appetite improved, their sleep was more refreshing, their nerves were settled, their kidneys ceased to bother them at night, back pains and rheumatic pains no longer made life miserable, and their general health was improved in every way. The combination of roots and other ingredients of which Root Juice is made certainly has a wonderful soothing, healing and tonic effect on the stomach, bowels, bladder, liver and kidneys. Many who have suffered for years with catarrh of the stomach and bowels, gastric ulcers and other causes of bad digestion, have called at the drug store to say that a few bottles of Root Juice have completely cured them.

SEE FINE PROSPECT FOR A VICTORY; URGE WORK

Important of Organization is Impressed Upon Democrats.

Every democratic committeeman and party worker heard organization emphasized again and again at the big meeting held Saturday afternoon at the headquarters in the Saengerbund building by the state candidates and others who were on the program to speak. It was a big meeting, with an attendance of five hundred or so. Congressman Cline and A. A. Adams were detained at Churubusco while burrying here in an auto and could not reach this city in time for the meeting.

District Chairman E. C. Hoffman presided and he began on the organization theme from the outset. The speakers who followed laid great emphasis upon the necessity of putting party work upon a systematic basis. One speaker said that it would be much better to spend all the money in organization than to appropriate some of the funds for bands and red lights. The committeemen were urged to use every effort to get out the vote in the coming election, coming as it does in the off-presidential year. All the speakers said that the democratic prospects this year are better than ever before, but that elections can not be won at the headquarters at Indianapolis or any other place. Those basing their themes upon organization, were W. H. O'Brien, candidate for state auditor and former state chairman; William H. Vollmer, candidate for state treasurer; J. Fred Francs, the Huntington man who seeks the clerkship of the supreme court; Lew Ellingham, of Decatur, candidate for secretary of state; Hon. James M. Robinson and Judge Edward O'Rourke.

Republicans Meet Tonight.

At what is termed a "reception for the candidates," the workers in the local republican ranks will gather at the headquarters on East Main street this evening to become better acquainted with the men whom they are supporting for office. The meeting is to be social in nature, and several short addresses are to be made, including one by Howard Meuntz, of Garrett, and another by Judge O. N. Heaton, the nominee for congress. County Chairman Lee Harizell has invited everybody to be one of those at the meeting tonight and he is expecting an attendance of several hundred.

An organization meeting such as are being held all over the state is being held for Steuben county at Angola today and District Chairman Henry and Austin Stulz are among those present.

THE MARKETS

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago Market.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 19.—A majority of wheat traders appeared to believe, judging by a slight advance in prices today that possibilities for money making were greater on the bull side of the market than on the bear side. This conviction was based chiefly on domestic conditions, although foreign situations seemed to be taking on an aspect favoring an upturn. The shortage in France, for example, was today estimated at 113,000,000 bushels, compared with last year's crop. Moreover world shipments were 3,000,000 bushels less than a week previous. However, support here was poor in the early dealings and the market at first showed a tendency to drag. Opening prices were ¼c lower to ⅜c higher. December started at $1.00 to $1.00⅜, as against $1.00¼ Saturday night. A rally to $1.00⅝@1.00½ followed.

Fine weather caused general selling of corn. December opened ¼c to ½c down at 52⅞c to 53⅛c, and declined to 52⅝c.

Oats were easy with corn. December started unchanged to ⅛c off at 35⅝c to 35¾c, and declined to 35½@35½c.

Provisions showed no energy. First transactions were at a loss of 5c with January pork at $18.35 and October ribs at $11.30. There was nothing doing in lard.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

The Day on Wall Street.

New York, Sept. 19.—Prices of stocks started downward with the opening of the week. Dealings were meagre and the losses generally small. American Sugar fell 2, Rock Island, Union Pacific and Interborough-Metropolitan preferred 1 and United States Steel, Amalgamated Copper, American Smelting, Atchison, Southern Pacific nad National Railways of Mexico second preferred large fractions. St. Paul rose ⅝ and then yielded.

Supporting orders were encountered and prices hardened, but the recoveries were slight. Reading, Kansas City Southern, Brooklyn Transit and American Hide and Leather preferred meantime had been lowered a point. Denver & Rio Grande preferred and Westinghouse Electric advanced a point.

Uncertainty ruled the speculation in stocks. When early declines developed buying orders, which rallied price dealings fell to a low figure. Prices became almost stationary at about the closing level of Saturday. Chicago Great Western preferred and International Pump declined 1. American Steel Foundries rose 1. Bonds were irregular.

A gain of a point by St. Paul contributed to a higher level elsewhere, but there was no increase in the dealings. Tennessee Copper improved 1⅜ and Bethlehem Steel 1. American Smelting preferred sagged 1.

The ticker was motionless for minutes at a time and there was scarcely a fluctuation of an eighth in either direction. Rock Island preferred and American Sugar preferred advanced a point.

The market closed quiet. Fractions were clipped from prices in the course of the final hour, but the dealings and fluctuations alike were insignificant. The renewed dullness of Union Pacific affected the general list at the last.

SAYS LIQUOR HOSTS PLAN TO PACK COURT

Former Governor Hanly in Talk at Hartford City, Makes Charge.

Hartford City, Ind., Sept. 19.—In an address on local option here yesterday, former Governor Hanly charged the liquor interests of the state with planning to pack the supreme court. He declared if the liquor interests were unable to control the legislature, as they also planned, they desired to have a "wet" supreme court so as to be sure of the law's nullification.

He also spoke against the re-election of Judge Montgomery, one of the judges to give a dissenting opinion in the testing of the constitutionality of the law. He said he believed Judge Montgomery to be an honorable man, and he would not have him decide against his conviction, but he blamed him for having such a conviction.

The former governor spoke at length, and made a vigorous defense of the law. His final appeal was along the lines of his famous "I hate" declaration, delivered at the state convention, which declared for county option. He held that the ruin prophesied, as a result of the passage of the law, had not come to pass, and that tax levies have not been raised more frequently in dry than in wet counties. He held the reverse to be true, and to support his contention presented a great amount of statistics. He also gave figures on imprisonments for intoxication, which were also in favor of the "dry" counties.

The address was under the auspices of the local churches, and was heard by a large audience.

YOUR BACKACHE WILL YIELD

To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Bloomdale, Ohio.—"I suffered from terrible headaches, pains in my back and right side, and was tired all the time and nervous. I could not sleep, and every month I could hardly stand the pain. "If Its a Good Thing, Seavey's Have It"

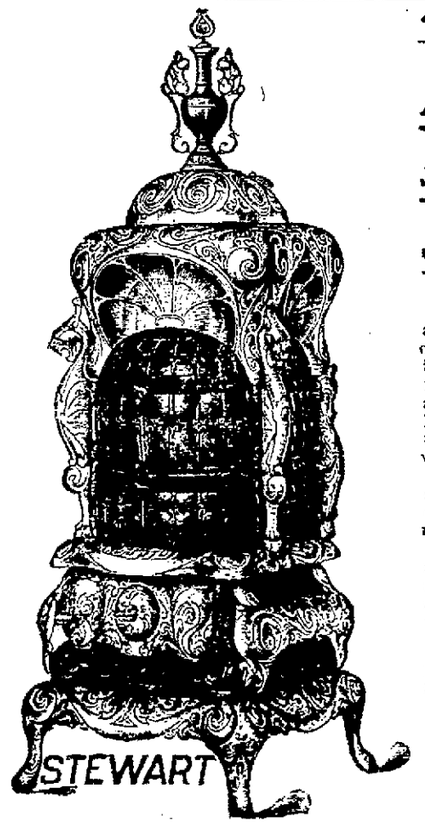
Here is a Point to Consider When You Buy a Stove



Every one is more or less interested in an actual occurence and we have one to offer that is good. One of our customers came into the store on Wednesday afternoon, the 7th inst., and inquired if she could buy a new grate and some minor repairs for her store. Upon being asked by the clerk for the name and number, she replied: "Why, the stove is one bought from Mr. G. W. Seavey about 20 years ago and as this is the first time we have ever had to repair it, I did not know that those were necessary, but I will phone them to you."

Now we wish to state to you that this is just the type of stoves we are selling today that will give you 20 years of good every day service. Would you not be satisfied if you could derive just one half of the benefit this lady did?

We are selling the same line of the celebrated Stewart stove that has been manufactured for the past 79 years. Come and see for yourself and be convinced. We will cheerfully show you the goods and explain every point to our entire satisfaction. This is no trouble but a pleasure.

Now is the time to place your order with us for future delivery. Do not put off a necessity until you will actually need it.
